

A PLACE IN THE WORLD

ACU/THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE
VISUAL ART PRIZE 2006

An initiative of The University of Adelaide

Visual arts and other cultural activities within universities play an important role in their interaction with the broader community. Such activities have a significant impact on the social and cultural capital of society. The Association of Commonwealth Universities endorses and celebrates those activities. The aim of the prize is to present an opportunity for tertiary student artists to create a work of art which reflects the personal or cultural complexities of life in Australia or New Zealand.

1st prize: A$5,000 awarded by the Association of Commonwealth Universities.

2nd prize: A$3,000 awarded by The University of Adelaide.

Open to all students of universities that are members of the ACU within Australia and New Zealand .

Selected works will be displayed in the exhibition A Place in the World in Adelaide, South Australia, during the ACU conference in April 2006.

The prize will be acquisitive in nature. The first prize winner will become part of the ACU London Head Office Collection and the second prize winner part of The University of Adelaide Visual Art Collection.

Entries close 3rd February 2006.
