

Food waste collected from a commercial kitchen processing over 300 meals per day.

Food waste chopped to approximately 5cm particle size and then mixed.

Digested biosolids used as a co-digestant.

The end anaerobic product after approximately 10 weeks digestion, characterised by small particle size.