

Master of Psychology (Organisational and Human Factors)

These Program Rules should be read in conjunction with the University's policies (<http://www.adelaide.edu.au/policies>).

1 Duration of program

- 1.1 Except with the permission of the Faculty, the courses of study and the dissertation shall be completed in not more than two years of full-time study or four years of part-time study.
- 1.2 A student whose work in the program is interrupted for a reason acceptable to the Head of the School of Psychology may be granted an intermission of candidature by the Head on behalf of the Faculty. If such an application is approved the maximum period specified in clause 1.1 will be adjusted accordingly by adding the length of the intermission.

2 Admission

- 2.1 An applicant for admission to the program of study for the degree of Master of Psychology (Organisational and Human Factors) shall have qualified for an Honours degree of Bachelor, with Honours in Psychology, of Adelaide University or for an Honours degree of another institution accepted for the purpose by the University (minimum of Second Class, Division A Honours and an individually conducted research project carrying 33% or more of the years work).
- 2.2 Status, exemption and credit transfer
 - 2.2.1 The Faculty may grant such status for other studies under-taken in the University or other institutions in any course as it may determine up to a maximum of 9 units, provided that any such course has not been presented for another degree.
 - 2.2.2 Except by the special permission of the Head of the School of Psychology, no student may gain status for the courses PSYCHOL 7344 and PSYCHOL 7345 Research Project in Organisational Psychology for other studies undertaken in the University or other institutions.

3 Assessment and examinations

- 3.1 There shall be one of two systems of classification of pass in individual courses for the Masters degree: either Non-graded Pass; or Pass with High Distinction, Pass with Distinction, Pass with Credit, and Pass.
- 3.2 On completion of the Research Project the student shall lodge with the School a copy of the dissertation prepared in accordance with directions given to students from time to time. No dissertation or material presented for any other degree within this or any other institution shall be submitted.
- 3.3 Two examiners of the Research Project will be appointed by the Head of School. Both examiners will normally be internal to the Discipline but not include the student's supervisor.
- 3.4 Academic progress
 - 3.4.1 A student who fails a course and desires to take the course again shall again attend lectures and satisfactorily do such written and practical work as the teaching staff concerned may prescribe.
 - 3.4.2 A student who has twice failed a course may not enrol for that course again except by special permission to be obtained in writing from the Faculty and then only under such conditions as may be prescribed.
 - 3.4.3 Attendance is required for at least 80% of the sessions in any compulsory course. A student who fails this requirement will not be eligible for examination unless there are extenuating circumstances.
 - 3.4.4 If in the opinion of the Head of the School of Psychology a student for the degree is not making satisfactory progress, the Faculty may, with the consent of the Council, terminate the candidature and the student shall cease to be enrolled for the degree.

4 Qualification requirements

- 4.1 Unless exempted there from by the Faculty, all students will satisfactorily complete Compulsory Courses to the value of 21 units, three 18-week periods (of 5 half-days per week or equivalent) of placement in different institutions or organisations offering psychological services approved by the Head of the School of Psychology, and a Research Dissertation. Placement I will have a course value of 3 units as it will have a high level of supervision. Placement II & III will have a course value of 6 units as these will involve more independent work.
