

Graduate Diploma in Business Law

These Program Rules should be read in conjunction with the University's policies (<http://www.adelaide.edu.au/policies>).

1 Duration of Program

To qualify for the degree, a candidate shall satisfactorily complete a program of study comprising two semesters of full-time study or equivalent part-time. The maximum time permitted for completion of the program is six years, subject to special permission from the Faculty to complete over a longer period.

2 Admission

2.1 An applicant for admission to the academic program for the degree of Graduate Diploma of Business Law shall have qualified for a Bachelor degree of the University of Adelaide or a Bachelor degree of another institution accepted by the Faculty for the purpose as equivalent, other than a Bachelor of Laws (or an equivalent degree).

2.2 The Faculty may, subject to such conditions as it sees fit to impose in each case, accept as a candidate for the degree a person who does not satisfy the requirements of Rule 2.1 above but who has presented evidence satisfactory to the Faculty of fitness to undertake the work for the degree.

2.3 Status, exemption and credit transfer

2.3.1 The Faculty may, on the basis of a candidate's prior studies, waive the need for that candidate to complete the Foundation courses. In such a case the candidate must complete an additional 3 or 6 units (as the case may be) of Advanced courses.

2.3.2 The Faculty may also grant credit towards the program, with or without conditions, as follows:

a up to a maximum of 12 units completed towards a comparable degree of another tertiary institution accepted by the Faculty for the purpose as equivalent to the Graduate Diploma of Business Law

or

b up to a maximum of 6 units completed towards a comparable degree of the University of Adelaide, other than those listed in paragraph (c)

or

c a candidate for the Graduate Diploma in Business Law who does not complete the requirements for the award but satisfies the requirements for the Graduate Certificate in Business Law may be admitted to that award.

2.3.3 A candidate, who fails a course and wishes to repeat that course shall, unless partially exempted by the Faculty, again complete the required work in the course to the satisfaction of the teaching staff concerned.

2.4 In determining a candidate's eligibility for the award of the degree, the Faculty may disallow any course completed more than 10 years ago. Where a course is disallowed under this rule, a student will be required to undertake such additional or special programs of study as the Faculty deems appropriate.

3 Assessment and examinations

3.1 There shall be four classifications of pass in any course for the Masters degree: Pass with High Distinction, Pass with Distinction, Pass with Credit and Pass.

3.2 A candidate who has failed a course twice may not re-enrol in that course except by special permission of the Faculty and then only under such conditions as may be prescribed.

4 Qualification requirements

4.1 A candidate shall satisfactorily complete courses from the Graduate Diploma of Business Law to the value of 24 units, as follows:

a a 6 unit Foundation course

b 18 units of Advanced courses

4.2 The Graduate Diploma of Business Law courses are as follows:

Foundation course:

LAW 7157 Introduction to Business Law 6

Advanced courses:

Such further law courses as may be approved by the Program coordinator and advertised as available in any year.

4.3 Graduation

Subject to Chapter 89 of the Statutes, candidates who have satisfied the requirements for any award of the University shall be admitted to that award.

5 Special circumstances

When in the opinion of the relevant Faculty special circumstances exist, the Council, on the recommendation of the Faculty in each case, may vary any of the provisions of the Academic Program Rules for any particular award.
