

Bachelor of Development Studies

These Program Rules should be read in conjunction with the University's policies (<http://www.adelaide.edu.au/policies>).

1 Duration of program

- 1.1 The program of study for the Bachelor degree shall extend over three years of full-time study or the part-time equivalent.
- 1.2 Candidates shall complete the requirements of the award within ten years. In determining a candidate's eligibility for the award of the degree, the Faculty will not normally count any course passed more than 10 years previously (see rule 2.1.4).

2 Admission

2.1 Status, exemption and credit transfer

- 2.1.1 Students who have passed courses in Bachelors degrees, or AQF Certificate IV, Diploma or Advanced Diploma awards, at the University of Adelaide or another recognised institution, who wish to count such courses towards their degree, will be granted credit in accordance with the Academic Credit Arrangements Policy (see www.adelaide.edu.au/policies/), subject to meeting the qualification requirements of their degree. Students are not obliged to count the credit awarded.

- 2.1.2 Where studies have been undertaken at an institution other than the University of Adelaide, an application for credit should be submitted to the Humanities and Social Sciences Faculty Office, accompanied by an official academic transcript and syllabus details of the course(s) for which credit is being sought (see www.adelaide.edu.au/student/admission/transfer_credit/applying).

No application for credit is required where the previous study has been undertaken at the University of Adelaide however students should request a degree plan from the Faculty Office, upon commencement of their studies, to indicate how the credit fits into their study plan.

- 2.1.3 Where credit is applied toward a minor sequence of study, students must complete a minimum of 6 units at Advanced Level or Level III from within the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences toward the minor to fulfil the requirements of the minor.

- 2.1.4 Credit on account of courses completed more than 10 years previously

Unless there are exceptional circumstances approved by the Executive Dean, prior learning will not be accepted for credit if it was completed more than 10 years before the application for credit is made. This does not apply where the prior learning is for unspecified credit for an unrestricted elective course.

2.2 Credit in formal combined degree arrangements

Bachelor of Laws

Students who have passed courses in the degree of Bachelor of Laws at the University of Adelaide will be granted credit toward the Bachelor of Development Studies to the following limits:

- a 12 units at Level I in lieu of the requirements of 4.1.1(c & d)

and

- b 12 units at Advanced Level or Level II in lieu of 4.1.1 (g & h)

The requirement to complete a minor in the Bachelor of Development studies is waived.

2.4 Credit for concurrent study
