

Bachelor of Languages

These Program Rules should be read in conjunction with the University's policies (<http://www.adelaide.edu.au/policies>).

Overview

The Bachelor of Languages is designed to provide students with the opportunity to develop proficiency in one or more languages as well as an enhanced knowledge of the culture(s) in which the language they are studying is spoken. Students who complete the program will thus develop a heightened awareness of language as a system and of its role in society, as well as a greater appreciation of cultural diversity and of cultural difference. The program is open to anyone who has successfully studied a language at Year 12 level (or equivalent). Admission to the program is based on academic merit and applicants must also meet the University's English language proficiency requirements (<http://www.international.adelaide.edu.au/apply/admission/index.html>).

The Bachelor of Languages comprises 72 units: a major in a single language (24 units) plus cognate courses to the value of 6 units as well as a minor (18 units) in a second language or in Linguistics, with 24 units of electives. The standard duration of the program is three years of full-time study. This program is also available part-time.

1. Academic Program Rules for Bachelor of Languages

1.1 There shall be a degree of Bachelor of Languages.

2. Qualification requirements

2.1 Academic Program

To qualify for the degree of Bachelor of Languages, the candidate must complete satisfactorily a program of study consisting of the following courses with a combined total of not less than 72 units:

Students must complete:

- i 24 units (a major) in a single language, choosing from the courses listed in 2.1.1; and
- ii 6 units in an area cognate to the language major, choosing from the courses listed in 2.1.2; and
- iii 18 units (a minor) in another language or in Linguistics, choosing from the courses listed in 2.1.3; and
- iv 24 units of Humanities and Social Sciences electives as specified in 2.1.4

Notes:

- i the minor is a minimum requirement; students may complete a second major if they so wish by completing 24 units in another language chosen from the sequences listed in 2.1.1;
- ii students who commence at higher levels of a particular language will be required to complete additional cognate courses as required in order to achieve the required number of units for the major or minor.
- iii students may present no more than 24 units at Level I and must complete a minimum of 48 units at Advanced Level (or 24 units at Level II and 24 units at Level III).
