Notes on Delegated Authority

1. Council has delegated the power to approve minor changes to the Academic Program Rules to the Executive Deans of Faculties.
2. Council has delegated the power to specify syllabuses to the Head of each department or centre concerned, such syllabuses to be subject to approval by the Faculty or by the Executive Dean on behalf of the Faculty.

Diploma in Languages

Note: The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences has developed this program to enable students enrolled in any undergraduate degree of the University to concurrently undertake a three-year language sequence and graduate with both a Bachelor's degree and the Diploma in Languages. Application for admission to this program shall be made directly to the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences. Entry to this program may not be deferred.

1 Duration of program

The duration of the Diploma itself shall be a minimum of three years of study, but shall be taken concurrently with full- or part-time study in another undergraduate award.

2 Admission

2.1 A student of the Diploma in Languages must be enrolled concurrently in a degree of Bachelor in the University.

2.2 Status, exemption and credit transfer

Except by special permission of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences:

2.2.1 No student may gain status for any part of the language sequence of the Diploma in Languages, except where the language courses were undertaken in a University of Adelaide program and will no longer count to that program.

2.2.2 No status will be awarded in the Diploma in Languages for courses presented for another award.

3 Enrolment

3.1 Approval of program of study

Students should consult both the Faculty which administers their Bachelor degree and the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences for advice on an appropriate program of study.

4 Assessment and examinations

4.1 A candidate shall not be eligible to be assessed by examination or otherwise unless the prescribed work has been completed to the satisfaction of the teaching staff concerned. A candidate who is not eligible to be assessed by examination or otherwise shall be deemed to have failed the course.

4.2 A candidate who fails in a course or who obtains a Conceded Pass and who desires to take the course again shall, unless exempted wholly or partially by the Executive Dean of the Faculty concerned, again complete all the required work in that course to the satisfaction of the teaching staff concerned.

4.3 A candidate who does not complete the required assessment tasks in any course, shall be deemed to have failed the course.

4.4 There shall be four classifications of pass in any courses for the Diploma, as follows: Pass with High Distinction, Pass with Distinction, Pass with Credit, and Pass. There shall also be a classification of Conceded Pass. A candidate may not present a Conceded Pass for the Diploma.

5 Qualification requirements

5.1 To qualify for the Diploma in Languages a student shall complete a three-year sequence (as defined in Rule 5.3 below) and satisfy the requirements of an undergraduate degree of the university.

5.2 A student may not have the Diploma in Languages conferred until he or she has satisfied the requirements for the approved undergraduate program.

5.3 Academic program

5.3.1 Language sequence

All students shall complete a three-year language sequence to a total value of 24 units. The sequence shall consist of:

6 units at Level I

9 units at Level II

9 units at Level III

in a single language

5.3.2 Language sequence variation

In certain circumstances this sequence may be varied to consist of:

9 units at Level II

9 units at Level III

6 units of advanced language studies or approved area studies or

5.3.3 Chinese

6 units at Level I

6 units at Level II

6 or 9 units at Level III

3 or 6 units Level IIIS (in fourth year of study) or for students who have studied SACE stage 2 Chinese or equivalent:

6 units at Level II

9 units at Level III

9 units at Level IIIS

Note: all units are from language courses. Students can opt to enrol in 3 units of a China-focussed Social Science course in place of one language course.

5.3.4 Japanese

9 units at Level I
6 units at Level II
9 units at Level III or
6 units at Level I
9 units at Level II
6 units at Level III
3 units at advanced level

5.3.5 Language availability

The languages available are:

Chinese
French
German
Indonesian
Italian
Japanese
Modern Greek
Spanish

5.3.6 With the permission of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, a student may substitute a period of study in an approved overseas tertiary institution as an exchange student in lieu of part of the requirements of the Diploma in Languages, up to a limit of 12 units.

5.4 Unacceptable combinations of courses

No candidate will be permitted to count towards an award any course, together with any other course, which, in the opinion of the Faculty concerned, contains a substantial amount of the same material; and no course or portion of a course may be counted twice towards an award.

5.5 Graduation

Subject to Chapter 89 of the Statutes, candidates who have satisfied the requirements for any award of the University shall be admitted to that award at a graduation ceremony for the purpose.

6 Special circumstances

When in the opinion of the relevant Faculty special circumstances exist, the Council, on the recommendation of the Faculty in each case, may vary any of the provisions of the Academic Program Rules for any particular award.

Bachelor of Arts

Note: Students who commenced their program of study towards the Bachelor of Arts under Specific Course Rules in 1995 or Regulations and Schedules in 1994 or earlier are subject to the following provisions:

- Students will normally complete their course of study under the provisions of the Specific Course Rules as published in 1995.
- Students may be permitted to complete their studies under the current Academic Program Rules for the Bachelor of Arts with such modifications as the Faculty may deem necessary.

Students who commenced their program of study towards the Bachelor of Arts prior to 2008 will normally complete their program of study under the provisions of the Specific Course Rules as published in the 2008 Undergraduate Calendar.

1 Duration of program

- 1.1 The program of study for the Bachelor degree will extend over three years of full-time study or the part-time equivalent.
- 1.2 Students will complete the requirements of the award within ten years. In determining a student's eligibility for the award of the degree, the Faculty will not normally count any course passed more than 10 years previously (see Rule 2.3).

2 Admission

2.1 Status, exemption and credit transfer

The following status rules apply to the Bachelor of Arts and the named degrees, Bachelor of Development Studies, Bachelor of Media, Bachelor of Social Sciences, Bachelor of Environmental Policy and Management and Bachelor of International Studies.

Students who have passed courses in Bachelor degree awards or equivalent at the University of Adelaide or another recognised institution, who wish to count such courses towards their degree, will be granted status to specified maximum limits. Students are not obliged to count the status awarded.

Where studies have been undertaken at an institution other than the University of Adelaide, a written application for status, accompanied by a transcript or statement of results, must be submitted to the Faculty Registrar.

No application for status is required where the previous studies have been undertaken at the University of Adelaide. The maximum status limits are as follows:

2.1.1 Complete Bachelor degree studies in any academic discipline

- a 12 units at Level I in lieu of the requirements of 4.1.1.1 (b) (or equivalent for the named degrees) and
- b 12 units at Advanced Level or Level II in lieu of 4.1.1.1 (e) (or equivalent for the named degrees) i.e. not forming part of the major sequence for the BA or the compulsory courses or approved electives for the named degrees.

2.1.1.1 Where the complete degree includes Humanities and Social Sciences courses undertaken at the University of Adelaide (not more than 10 years previously), students are entitled to additional status as follows, subject to fulfilling the requirements of 4.1.1.2 the major sequence:

- a 12 units at Level I in lieu of the requirements of 4.1.1.1 (a) (or equivalent for the named degrees)
- b 12 units at Advanced Level or Level II in lieu of 4.1.1.1 (c) and (d) (or equivalent for the named degrees).

2.1.2 Incomplete Bachelor degree studies in any academic discipline (not covered by 2.1.3 or 2.2)

- a 12 units at Level I in lieu of the requirements of 4.1.1.1 (b) (or equivalent for the named degrees) and
- b 12 units at Advanced Level or Level II in lieu of 4.1.1.1 (e) (or equivalent for the named degrees) i.e. not forming part of the major sequence for the BA or the compulsory courses or approved electives for the named degrees.

2.1.2.1 Where the incomplete degree includes the equivalent of up to 12 units of Humanities and Social Sciences not already included under 2.1.2 (a), students are entitled to additional status at Level I as follows:

- a Bachelor of Arts - 12 units of Humanities and Social Sciences
- b Bachelor of Media - 3 units of Humanities and Social Sciences
- c Bachelor of Social Sciences - 6 units of Social Sciences
- d In special circumstances additional status may be granted for degrees completed at other Australian universities.

2.1.2.2 If students intend to study the Bachelor degree and their original degree concurrently, they should consult the Faculty that offers the original degree for advice on fulfilling its requirements.

2.1.3 Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Commerce, Bachelor of Computer Science, Bachelor of Development Studies, Bachelor of Economics, Bachelor of

Environmental Policy and Management, Bachelor of Finance, Bachelor of International Studies, Bachelor of Mathematical and Computer Sciences, Bachelor of Media, Bachelor of Social Sciences

A student who undertakes concurrently any two of the degrees listed above, may count 12 units at each of Level I and Advanced Level or Level II to both degrees, by undertaking courses to a minimum total of 48 units which satisfy the Level I and Advanced Level or Level II requirements of both awards.

Students must then present for each degree courses to the value of 24 units at Advanced Level or Level III (including where relevant a Capstone course) not presented for any other award, satisfying the requirements for the two degrees with a minimum total of 96 units (or 4 years) of study.

2.2 Status in formal combined degree arrangements

2.2.1 Law

Students who have passed courses in the Bachelor of Laws degree at the University of Adelaide will be granted status to the following limits:

- a 12 units at Level I in lieu of the requirements of 4.1.1.1 (b) (or equivalent for the named degrees) and
- b 12 units at Advanced Level or Level II in lieu of 4.1.1.1 (e) (or equivalent for the named degrees) i.e. not forming part of the major sequence for the BA or the compulsory courses or approved electives for the named degrees

2.2.2 Bachelor of Economics and Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Economic and Bachelor of International Studies, Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of International Studies, Bachelor of Art and Bachelor of Media, Bachelor of Media and Bachelor of International Studies

A student who undertakes any combination listed above, may count 12 units at each of Level I and Advanced Level or Level II towards both degrees, by undertaking courses to a minimum total of 48 units which satisfy the Level I and Advanced Level or Level II requirements of both awards.

Students must then present for each degree courses to the value of 24 units at Advanced Level or Level III (including where relevant a Capstone course) not presented for any other award, satisfying the requirements for the two degrees with a minimum total of 96 units (or 4 years) of study.

2.2.3 Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Science

Students may enrol in a program of study leading, after four years of full-time study (or part-time equivalent), to the award of both the Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Science.

A student who undertakes these two degrees may count 12 units at each of Level I and Advanced Level or Level II to both degrees, by undertaking courses to a minimum total of 48 units which satisfy the Level I and Advanced Level or Level II requirements of both awards.

Students must then present for each degree courses to the value of 24 units at Advanced Level or Level III (including where relevant a Capstone course) not presented for any other award, satisfying the requirements for the two degrees with a minimum total of 96 units (or 4 years) of study.

2.2.4 Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Music

Students who have passed courses in any one of the Bachelor of Music degrees at the University of Adelaide will be granted status to the following limits:

- a 12 units at Level I in lieu of the requirements of 4.1.1.1 (b) and
- b 12 units at Advanced Level or Level II in lieu of 4.1.1.1 (e) i.e. not forming part of the major sequence for the BA.

The Double degree program takes five years of full-time study (or part-time equivalent). For more information refer to the Notes (Not Forming Part of the Academic Program Rules) for the Bachelor of Music.

2.3 Status on account of studies completed more than 10 years previously

Status is not normally awarded for studies completed more than 10 years previously. Where the Faculty deems status is appropriate, it will be limited as follows:

- a 12 units at Level I in lieu of the requirements of 4.1.1.1 (b) (or equivalent for the named degrees) and
- b 12 units at Advanced level or Level II in lieu of 4.1.1.1 (e) (or equivalent for the named degrees) i.e. not forming part of the major sequence for the BA or the compulsory courses or approved electives for the named degrees

2.4 Status for prior Technical and Further Education (TAFE) studies

Students who hold a completed Associate Diploma/Diploma from an Institute of Technical and Further Education (TAFE) relating to a Discipline of study in the degree will be granted up to 12 units of status at Level I and up to 6 units of status at Advanced Level or Level II. Status will not normally be awarded for compulsory or Capstone courses.

2.5 Status for non-award studies

Students who have completed non-award courses from any recognised higher education institution may apply for status on account of such courses towards their degree and, if successful, will be subject to the same limits and conditions outlined in 2.1 above.

- 2.6 Minimum number of courses to be chosen from those offered by the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences at the University of Adelaide. Any application of the status rules above is subject to the requirement that all students must undertake a minimum of 36 units of courses chosen from 5.12.1-5.12.3 Humanities and Social Sciences.

3 Assessment and examinations

- 3.1 A candidate shall not be eligible to be assessed by examination or otherwise unless the prescribed work has been completed to the satisfaction of the teaching staff concerned. A candidate who is not eligible to be assessed by examination or otherwise shall be deemed to have failed the course.
- 3.2 A candidate who fails or obtains a Conceded Pass and who desires to take the course again shall, unless exempted wholly or partially by the Executive Dean of the Faculty concerned, again complete all the required work in that course to the satisfaction of the teaching staff concerned.
- 3.3 A candidate who does not complete the required assessment tasks in any course, shall be deemed to have failed the course.
- 3.4 There shall be four classifications of pass in any courses for the Bachelor degree, as follows: Pass with High Distinction, Pass with Distinction, Pass with Credit, and Pass. There shall also be a classification of Conceded Pass. A candidate may present for the Bachelor degree only a limited number of courses for which a Conceded Pass has been obtained, as specified in 6.5 below.

4 Qualification requirements

4.1 Academic program

4.1.1 Bachelor of Arts

- 4.1.1.1 To qualify for the degree of Bachelor of Arts a student will present passes in courses to the value of 72 units which satisfy the following requirements:

Level I

- a Level I courses to the value of 12 units chosen from those listed in 5.12.1 Humanities and Social Sciences courses, which may form part of a major sequence and a minor sequence of study (see 4.1.1.2 and 4.1.1.3) below.
- b Level I courses to the value of 12 units chosen from those listed in 5.12.1 Humanities and Social Sciences courses, or other courses offered by the University at Level I which are available to them.

Advanced Level or Level II

- c Courses to the value of 15 units chosen from those listed in 5.12.2 or 5.12.4 Humanities and Social Sciences courses, being the Level II or Advanced Level component of a major and a minor sequence of study (see 4.1.1.2 and 4.1.1.3)

- d Courses to the value of 9 units chosen from those listed in 5.12.2 or 5.12.4 Humanities and Social Sciences courses, or other courses offered by the University at Level II or Advanced Level which are available to them

Advanced Level or Level III

- e Courses to the value of 15 units (including a Capstone course) chosen from those listed in 5.12.3 or 5.12.4 Humanities and Social Sciences courses, being the Level III or Advanced Level component of a major and a minor sequence of study (see 4.1.1.2 and 4.1.1.3)
- f Courses to the value of 9 units chosen from those listed in 5.12.3 or 5.12.4 Humanities and Social Sciences courses at Level III or Advanced Level.

4.1.1.2 Major sequence

24 units of courses must be chosen from one of the following areas of study, to form a 'major sequence' of study. A maximum of 6 units at Level I and at least 18 units of Advanced Level courses, including a Capstone course, with the exception of major sequences from the Elder Conservatorium of Music or other Faculties, or 9 units at Level II and 9 units at Level III must be presented:

Anthropology
 Asian Politics & Foreign Policy*
 Asian Studies*
 Chinese
 Classical Studies
 Development Studies*
 Economics
 English
 European Studies
 French Studies
 Gender, Work & Social Inquiry
 Geographical & Environmental Studies
 German Studies
 History
 Indonesian
 International Studies
 Italian
 Japanese
 Linguistics
 Modern Greek
 Music Studies
 Philosophy
 Politics
 Psychology
 Spanish
 * Interdisciplinary areas of study

- a Students may choose to undertake a second major in another area of study.

- b In most areas of study, eligibility to apply for Honours is subject to completion of a major sequence to a standard acceptable to the discipline concerned. Students should contact the relevant discipline for advice on appropriate course choices for eligibility for Honours.
- c Honours in areas in other faculties, e.g. Economics and Psychology, may require more than a standard major sequence. Students should consult the relevant area for more information.

4.1.1.3 Minor sequence

18 units of courses must be chosen from one of the following areas of study, to form a 'minor sequence' of study. A maximum of 6 units at Level I and at least 12 units of Advanced Level courses or 6 units at Level II and 6 units at Level III must be presented:

Anthropology
 Art Theory*
 Asian Politics & Foreign Policy*
 Asian Studies
 Australian Studies*
 Biography/History*
 Chinese
 Classical Studies
 Development Studies*
 Economics
 English
 European Studies
 Film*
 French Studies
 Gender, Work & Social Inquiry

 International Studies
 Italian
 Japanese
 Linguistics
 Medieval & Renaissance Studies*
 Modern Greek
 Music Studies
 Philosophy
 Politics
 Popular Culture*
 Psychology
 Religion & Ethics*
 Spanish
 Work Studies*
 Writing Practice

* Interdisciplinary areas of study

Students are required to undertake a minor in a different area of study to that presented for the major.

5 All Degrees

The following rules apply to the Bachelor of Arts and the named degrees, Bachelor of Development Studies, Bachelor of Environmental Policy and Management, Bachelor of International Studies, Bachelor of Media, and Bachelor of Social Sciences.

5.1 Unacceptable combinations of courses

- 5.1.1 A course cannot be presented twice for the degree.
- 5.1.2 A course cannot be presented with another course that contains a substantial amount of the same material.
- 5.1.3 A course cannot be presented in addition to any course listed as an 'incompatible' combination.

5.2 Repeating courses

- 5.2.1 A student who repeats a course they have previously failed must again attend lectures and do all assessed work in the course.
- 5.2.2 A student who wishes to repeat a course they have already passed must enrol in it on a non-award basis.
- 5.2.3 A student who has twice failed any course may not reenrol in that course again, or for any other course which in the opinion of the Faculty contains a substantial amount of the same material, except by special permission of the Faculty and then only under such conditions as the Faculty may prescribe.

5.3 Cross-institutional study

- 5.3.1 With prior approval of the Faculty, students may present courses offered by other universities, which are not offered by the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, toward the Bachelor degree to the following limits:
 - a 12 units at Level I in lieu of the requirements of 4.1.1.1 (b) (or equivalent for the named degrees) and
 - b 9 units at Advanced Level or Level II in lieu of 4.1.1.1 (d) (or equivalent for the named degrees) i.e. not forming part of the major or minor sequence for the BA or the compulsory courses or approved electives for the named degrees.
- 5.3.2 Where students undertake any courses at another institution not approved by the Faculty, the Faculty will determine what status, if any, to award for such studies.
- 5.3.3 Flinders University Language Outreach courses are exempt from the provisions of this rule.

5.4 International exchanges

5.4.1 Students may count studies completed while on International Exchange programs formalised through the University's International Office toward the Bachelor degree to the following limits:

24 units in total at Advanced Level or Levels II and III combined.

5.4.2 Where students undertake any courses at a host institution not approved by the Faculty, the Faculty will determine what status, if any, to award for such studies.

5.4.3 International exchanges are exempt from the provisions of 5.3.

5.5 Conceded Passes

A student may present Conceded Passes in a maximum of two 3-unit courses providing that the course is not a Capstone or compulsory course.

5.6 Discipline limits

A student may not present more than 36 units of courses in a single area of study. An area of study is defined by the area that teaches it, not the majors to which it may be counted. This rule also applies where a student is undertaking an interdisciplinary major or an interdisciplinary degree.

5.7 Prerequisites

A student may only proceed to a course for which they have completed the prerequisite courses prescribed in the syllabuses.

5.8 Surplus to requirement

A student undertaking a course which is surplus to the requirements of their degree must enrol in that course on a non-award basis.

5.9 Counting units toward a lower level of the degree

A student may count any course undertaken or status awarded at Advanced Level or Level II to fulfil the requirements of Level I, or at Advanced Level or Level III to fulfil the requirements of Level I or II.

5.10 Review of academic progress

The Faculty may prescribe rules for review of academic progress. Any student who meets the requirements for review will be asked to show cause as to why they should be permitted to continue their studies. Students who cannot adequately explain poor academic performance may have their enrolment cancelled or restricted.

5.11 Graduation

Subject to Chapter 89 of the Statutes, students who have satisfied the requirements for any award of the University will be admitted to that award at a graduation ceremony for the purpose.

Bachelor of Arts (Honours)

1 Duration of program

- 1.1 The work of the Honours year must be completed in one full year of full-time study, or other than that, on the recommendation of the Head of the School/s concerned, or the Award Committee concerned, where the Faculty may permit a student to spread the work over two years, but not more, under such conditions as are listed under 1.2 below.
- 1.2 Honours over two years is taken to mean two consecutive years. The grounds for granting permission to do Honours over two years are limited to the following:
- students with care-giver responsibilities
 - students in greater than or equal to half time employment
 - students with a significant sickness or disability
 - students enrolled for part of the Honours program in an overseas institution
 - compassionate reasons.

In all reasons it should be clear that the student is unable to (rather than chooses not to) complete the requirements on a full-time basis.

Application for permission to spread the work of Honours over two years should be made to the Faculty Registrar before 31 March (or 31 August for students commencing mid year) and will not normally be granted if a student has chosen to enrol in another course concurrently.

2 Admission

- 2.1 Students for the Honours degree shall not begin their Honours work until they have qualified for a Bachelor degree of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, or some other degree deemed by the Faculty to be appropriate preparation, and have completed a major sequence relevant to the appropriate Honours degree syllabus, or equivalent acceptable to the School concerned, in their undergraduate degree.
- 2.2 Students wishing to take Honours must obtain the approval of the Head of School/s.
- 2.3 A student may not enrol a second time for Honours in the same degree and School if the student
- has presented for examination in that School but has failed to obtain Honours or
 - withdraws from the program, unless the Faculty under Rule 3.4 permits the student to re-enrol.

- 2.3.4 No graduate who has obtained an Honours degree in a course or field of study in another School or equivalent may obtain the Honours degree of Bachelor of Arts in a corresponding course, field of study, or School of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

3 Assessment and examinations

- 3.1 Except by permission of the Faculty, a student shall take the whole of the final examination (if any) for the Honours degree at the one annual examination.
- 3.2 A candidate who satisfies the requirements for Honours shall be awarded the Honours degree, but the Faculty shall decide within which of the following classes and divisions the degree shall be awarded:
- | | | |
|-----|--------------------|--------|
| 1 | First Class | 80-100 |
| 2A | Second Class div A | 70-79 |
| 2B | Second Class div B | 60-69 |
| 3 | Third Class | 50-59 |
| NAH | Not awarded | 0-49 |

3.3 Attendance requirements

A candidate shall not be eligible to present for assessment, by examination, dissertation or otherwise, unless he or she has regularly attended the prescribed classes and has done written and laboratory or other practical work, where required, to the satisfaction of the School/s concerned.

A candidate is required to meet regularly with his or her supervisor during the preparation and writing of the dissertation component of the program. Pursuant to this clause, a candidate who is not eligible to present work for assessment will receive a final result of NAH (Not Awarded), unless he or she withdraws from the program before the required date.

3.4 Academic progress

A student who is unable to complete the program for the Honours degree within the time allowed, or whose work is unsatisfactory at any stage of the program, or who withdraws from the program, shall be reported to the Faculty which may permit the student to re-enrol for the Honours degree under such conditions (if any) as it may determine and to ensure that the student does not in effect spread the work of Honours over 2 years.

4 Qualification requirements

- 4.1 A student may proceed to the Honours degree in one of the courses listed in Rule 4.5 below, comprising coursework and a dissertation, or, if being supervised by more than one School, a combination of those courses. A combination requires Faculty approval on the recommendation of the Schools concerned and shall include such work as shall be deemed by the Faculty to be equivalent to a single course of 24 units.

- 4.2 The program of study and dissertation topic for the Honours year for students must be approved by the Head of the School/s concerned before enrolment.
- 4.3 A student may not proceed to the Honours degree in a course that is not listed in Rule 4.5 below.
- 4.4 A student wishing to proceed to Honours in courses within the Faculty of Mathematical and Computer Sciences is referred to the Academic Program Rules for the Honours Degree of Bachelor of Mathematical and Computer Sciences.

4.5 Academic program

A student may proceed to the Honours degree in one of the following courses or certain approved combinations of the following courses, provided that the student has obtained, before enrolment, the approval of the Head of the School/s concerned:

Students who have been granted permission to study an honours program supervised by two disciplines will be advised of the appropriate course title and code at the time of enrolment.

4.6 Graduation

Subject to Chapter 89 of the Statutes, candidates who have satisfied the requirements for any award of the University shall be admitted to that award at a graduation ceremony for the purpose.

5 Special circumstances

When in the opinion of the relevant Faculty special circumstances exist, the Council, on the recommendation of the Faculty in each case, may vary any of the provisions of the Academic Program Rules for any particular award.

Note: To Academic Program Rule 4 (not forming part of the Rule)

The coursework and dissertation submitted to fulfil the requirements of the B.A.(Hons) is marked twice and referred to a third marker in the event of a discrepancy between the two original markers. The coursework and dissertation may not be submitted for additional remarking after the final result for Honours has been awarded.

1 Duration of program

The work of the Honours year must be completed in one full year of full-time study, or other than that, on the recommendation of the Head of the School/s concerned, or the Award Committee concerned, where the Faculty may permit a student to spread the work over two years, but not more, under such conditions as are listed under 1.1 below.

- 1.1 Honours over two years is taken to mean two consecutive years. The grounds for granting permission to do Honours over two years are limited (see rule 1.2 of Bachelor of Arts Honours degree).

The coursework and dissertation submitted to fulfil the requirements of the B.Dev.St. (Hons) are marked twice and referred to a third marker in the event of a discrepancy between the two original markers. The coursework and dissertation may not be submitted for additional remarking after the final result for Honours has been awarded.

Bachelor of Environmental Policy and Management (Honours)*

1 Duration of program

1.1 The work of the Honours year must be completed in one year of full-time study, other than that, on the recommendation of the Head of the School or Schools or Award Committee concerned, the Faculty may permit a student to spread the work over two years, but not more, under such conditions as it may determine but not more, under such conditions as are listed under 1.2 below.

1.2 Honours over two years is taken to mean two consecutive years. The grounds for granting permission to do Honours over two years are limited (see rule 1.2 of Bachelor of Arts Honours degree).

In all reasons it should be clear that the student is unable to (rather than chooses not to) complete the requirements on a full-time basis.

Application for permission to spread the work of Honours over two years should be made to the Faculty Registrar before 31 March (or 31 August for students commencing mid year) and will not normally be granted if the students has chosen to enrol in another course concurrently.

2 Admission

2.1 Students for the Honours degree shall not begin their Honours work until they have qualified for a Bachelor degree of Environmental Policy and Management or some other degree deemed by the Faculty to be appropriate preparation, and have completed a major sequence relevant to the appropriate Honours degree syllabus, or equivalent acceptable to the School concerned, in their undergraduate degree.

2.2 Students wishing to take Honours must obtain the approval of the Head of the School or School/s.

2.3 A student may not enrol a second time for Honours in the same degree and School if the student:

- i has presented for examination in that School but has failed to obtain Honours or
- ii withdraws from the program, unless the Faculty under Rule 3.4, below permits the student to re-enrol.

2.4 No graduate who has obtained an Honours degree in a course or field of study in another School or equivalent may obtain the Honours degree of Bachelor of Environmental Policy and Management in a corresponding course, field of study, or School of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences.

3 Assessment and examinations

3.1 Except by permission of the Faculty, a student shall take the whole of the final examination (if any) for the Honours degree at the one annual examination.

3.2 A candidate who satisfies the requirements for Honours shall be awarded the Honours degree, but the Faculty shall decide within which of the following classes and divisions the degree shall be awarded:

1	First Class	80-100
2A	Second Class div A	70-79
2B	Second Class div B	60-69
3	Third Class	50-59
NAH	Not awarded	0-49

3.3 Attendance requirements

A candidate shall not be eligible to present for assessment, by examination, dissertation or otherwise, unless he or she has regularly attended the prescribed classes and has done written and laboratory or other practical work, where required, to the satisfaction of the School/s concerned.

A candidate is required to meet regularly with his or her supervisor during the preparation and writing of the dissertation component of the program. Pursuant to this clause, a candidate who is not eligible to present work for assessment will receive a final result of NAH (Not Awarded), unless he or she withdraws from the program before the required date.

3.4 Academic progress

A student who is unable to complete the program for the Honours degree within the time allowed, or whose work is unsatisfactory at any stage of the program, or who withdraws from the program, shall be reported to the Faculty which may permit the student to re-enrol for the Honours degree under such conditions (if any) as it may determine and to ensure that the student does not in effect spread the work of Honours over 2 years.

4 Qualification requirements

4.1 A student may proceed to the Honours degree, comprising coursework and a dissertation, or, if being supervised by more than one School, a combination of those courses. A combination requires Faculty approval on the recommendation of the Schools concerned and shall include such work as shall be deemed by the Faculty to be equivalent to a single course of 24 units.

4.2 The program of study and dissertation topic for the Honours year for students must be approved by the Head of the School/s concerned before enrolment.

4.3 A student may proceed to the Honours degree in the following course or certain approved combinations of courses offered within the Faculty, provided that the student has obtained, before enrolment, the approval of the Head of the School/s concerned:

GEST 4401A/B Honours Environmental Policy & Management 24

Students who have been granted permission to study an honours program supervised by two disciplines will be advised of the appropriate course title and code at the time of enrolment.

4.4 Graduation

Subject to Chapter 89 of the Statutes, candidates who have satisfied the requirements for any award of the University shall be admitted to that award at a graduation ceremony for the purpose.

5 Special circumstances

When in the opinion of the relevant Faculty special circumstances exist, the Council, on the recommendation of the Faculty in each case, may vary any of the provisions of the Academic Program Rules for any particular award.

Note: To Academic Program Rule 4 (not forming part of the Rule)
