

PACE MENTORING

PACE is the Australian Network on Disability's vibrant and dynamic mentoring program designed to assist our member organisations to engage with students and jobseekers with disability.

“I was blessed to have such a great mentor in Jamie. He gave me great career advice. He was fair and realistic in the types of roles I should be applying for, explaining how these roles would put me in a strong position to progress up the career ladder. This allowed me to pin point the roles I needed to target.”

- Past PACE Mentee, Joseph Kadib

WHAT IS PACE?

Positive Action towards Career Engagement (PACE) offers students and jobseekers with disability the opportunity to develop skills and confidence in a workplace setting, which can assist in planning each individual's career journey, as well as aid personal and professional development.

During the mentoring program activities may include:

- Reviewing resume and cover letters
- Mock interviews
- Worksite visits
- Networking with other professionals
- Building confidence.

Participation is free to students and jobseekers with disability, and runs in two three-month streams - April to July, and September to December.

WHY BE A PACE MENTEE?

There are many benefits to being a PACE mentee, including:

- The opportunity to work with a professional mentor and to take advantage of their knowledge and support
- The chance to get exposure to the workplace
- Develop your skills and confidence in a workplace setting
- To set goals, working towards becoming job ready
- To build your networking skills
- Supporting your personal and professional development.
