Invitation to attend South Australian Regional Roundtable

Enhancing undergraduate engagement through research and enquiry

Date: 10th November 2009

Time: 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Venue: University of South Australia,
Brookman Hall, City East Campus,
North Terrace, Adelaide, 5000.

This event is designed to share, on a State-wide basis, experiences and issues related to the introduction and enhancement of undergraduate research and inquiry in Australian universities. It is one of a series of Regional Roundtables to be held as part of Professor Angela Brew's National Teaching Fellowship and it forms part of the University of South Australia's Teaching and Learning Week.

Speakers will include Fellowship team members and academics with experience of undergraduate research. The event will include discussion and sharing of participants' own experiences, ideas and resources, as well as artifacts and protocols being produced as part of the National Teaching Fellowship.

Deans (Teaching and Learning), Deans (Research), Directors Academic Developers and all academics interested in the integration of research and teaching are welcome.

The University's Division of Education, Arts and Social Sciences will be holding a Teaching and Learning Colloquium on the 11th November from 8:30 am to 2:30 pm in the Amy Wheaton Building at the Magill Campus, Adelaide. This event is also open to round table attendees. The keynote speaker at this Colloquium is Professor Kerri-Lee Krause, Chair in Higher Education and Director of the Griffith Institute for Higher Education, who will be speaking on the topic of student engagement.
