Feedback and Flexible Learning

4th ERGA Conference

24–25 September 2009

The University of Adelaide

CALL FOR PAPERS

The aim of the ERGA Conference series is to bring together colleagues from the higher education sector to discuss best practice and new approaches in the tertiary environment.

The conference theme for 2009 is Feedback and Flexible Learning. Our keynote speakers this year will be Professor Marcia Devlin, inaugural Chair in Higher Education Research at Deakin University, and Professor Susan Jones, Head of the School of Zoology at the University of Tasmania.

We now invite conference presentation proposals. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Providing effective feedback
- The nature of feedback
- Benefits and challenges of flexible learning approaches
- Student-teacher/student-student dynamics
- Feedback from peer and self assessments
- Teaching “out of the classroom”
- Online learning
- Distance education

Submissions can be made on the ERGA web site: www.adelaide.edu.au/erga/

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Panel Sessions

40 minutes

Submissions for panel sessions led by presenting teams are encouraged. A panel proposal may take the form of an abstract (500 words not including references), or a full paper (2000–4000 words).

Individual Papers

20 minutes

Submissions for an individual presentation may take the form of an abstract (500 words not including references), or a full paper (2000–4000 words).

Review & Publication Processes

All submissions will undergo a double-blind peer review process. For reviewers' criteria, see the ERGA website.

A book of abstracts will be published as the conference proceedings. Authors of selected papers will be invited to submit their work for consideration by the ERGA journal ergo, which is fully refereed.
