

Courtesy of Sophie Karanicolas School of Dentistry, University of Adelaide

Student's Name:

TUPAC Assessment Rubric

	Unsatisfactory 1	Satisfactory 2	Credit 3	Distinction 4	Score
Role adequacy and legitimacy	Developing an awareness of understanding of the role of the oral health practitioner but lacks an integrated understanding of this role within the context of a health care team.	Has a basic level of understanding for the role of the oral health practitioner and demonstrates an awareness of this role within the context of a health care team.	Demonstrates an accomplished level of understanding for the role of the oral health practitioner and can confidently integrate this role within the context of a health care team.	Demonstrates an exemplary level of understanding for the role of the oral health practitioner and provides a comprehensive analysis of this role within the context of a health care team.
Psychosocial Aspects of Tobacco Use	Developing an awareness of the psychological and social factors involved in tobacco addiction.	Demonstrates a sound understanding on the psychosocial factors involved in tobacco addiction through analysis and basic application.	Demonstrates an accomplished level of understanding on the psychosocial factors involved in tobacco through analysis and integrated application.	Demonstrates an exemplary level of understanding on the psychosocial factors involved in tobacco through analysis, integrated application and synthesis.
Smoking and Stress	Has a basic understanding of the challenges that a client may face in regards to tobacco cessation.	Demonstrates a sound understanding of the challenges and barriers that a client may face in regards to tobacco cessation and can suggest possible remedial strategies.	Demonstrates an accomplished understanding of the challenges and barriers that a client may face in regards to tobacco cessation and can suggest remedial strategies.	Demonstrates an exemplary level of understanding of the challenges and barriers that a client may face in regards to tobacco cessation and can suggest successful remedial strategies.

	Unsatisfactory 1	Satisfactory 2	Credit 3	Distinction 4	Score
Systemic and Oral effects of smoking	Has a basic understanding of the systemic and oral effects of smoking and can identify some of the clinical indicators that suggest local tissue destruction due to tobacco use.	Demonstrates a sound understanding of the systemic and oral effects of smoking and can identify the clinical indicators that suggest local tissue destruction due to tobacco use.	Demonstrates an accomplished understanding of the systemic and oral effects of smoking and can interpret and evaluate the clinical indicators that suggest local tissue destruction due to tobacco use.	Demonstrates an exemplary level of understanding of the systemic and oral effects of smoking and can interpret, evaluate and analyse the clinical indicators that suggest local tissue destruction due to tobacco use.
Understanding and Engaging Community Services.	Has a basic understanding of how to engage the utilisation of community support services through the 12-week Quitline program.	Demonstrates a sound understanding of how to engage the utilisation of community support services through the 12-week Quitline program.	Demonstrates an accomplished understanding of how to engage the utilisation of community support services through the 12-week Quitline program through reflection.	Demonstrates an exemplary level of understanding of how to engage the utilisation of community support services through the 12-week Quitline program through reflection and analysis.
Motivational Interviewing	Demonstrates a basic knowledge of motivational interviewing and effective communication techniques.	Demonstrates a sound understanding of motivational interviewing and effective communication techniques.	Demonstrates an accomplished level of understanding motivational interviewing techniques and effective communication techniques through positive client interaction and change management.	Demonstrates an exemplary level of understanding motivational interviewing techniques and effective communication techniques through positive client interaction and engagement and change management.

	Unsatisfactory 1	Satisfactory 2	Credit 3	Distinction 4	Score
Written Report Structure	A limited range of references (2-4) where used but were primarily peer reviewed. Other scholarly sources were used demonstrating limited research. Many spelling errors and sentence structure anomalies.	A narrow range of references (4-7) where used but were primarily peer reviewed. Other scholarly sources were used demonstrating an acceptable level of research. Some spelling errors and sentence structure anomalies.	A range of references where used (less than 10) are primarily peer reviewed professional journals or other approved sources; Numerous relevant scholarly sources (and primary sources, where available and appropriate) demonstrating an accomplished level of in-depth research; Minimal spelling errors and sentence structure anomalies.	A range of references where used (10 and over) are primarily peer reviewed professional journals or other approved sources; Numerous relevant scholarly sources (and primary sources, where available and appropriate) demonstrating an extensive and exemplary in-depth research; No spelling errors or sentence structure anomalies.
					Final Mark /28