

ANIMAL ETHICS COURSE
INTRODUCTION TO THE USE OF ANIMALS IN SCIENCE - ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

FRIDAY 4 MARCH 2011
BONYTHON HALL, NORTH TERRACE, UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE

8.30	Registration Desk Open
9.00	Welcome and opening address Professor Allan Evans, Pro Vice-Chancellor Health Sciences, University of South Australia
9.10	Why are we here? and why is it important? Dr Tim Kuchel, Head Veterinary Services, Institute of Medical & Veterinary Science
9.20	Introduction to the Animal Ethics Committee Professor Richard Russell, Pro Vice-Chancellor Research Operations, University of Adelaide
9.50	Layers of responsibility Dr Deb Kelly, Manager Animal Welfare, State Government Department for Environment and Natural Resources
10.20	The Animal Ethics Committee – A researcher perspective Dr Richard Young, NHMRC Senior Postdoctoral Researcher, Hanson Institute
10.45	Break – refreshments provided ***
11.15	Community attitudes to animal use and the role of the Australian and New Zealand Council for the Care of Animals in Research and Teaching (ANZCCART) Dr Geoff Dandie, CEO, ANZCCART
11.45	The role of the Animal Welfare Officer and monitoring animal welfare Dr Denise Noonan, Animal Welfare Officer, University of Adelaide
12.15	Animal care facilities – what we provide Mr Brian Lewis, SA Pathology (IMVS) Ms Pacita Wissell, Laboratory Animal Services, University of Adelaide
12.30	Take home messages and your chance to question Dr Tim Kuchel
1.00	Close

Conducted by The University of Adelaide Animal Ethics Committee and the IMVS/AHS/University of South Australia Animal Ethics Committee

<http://www.adelaide.edu.au/ethics/animal/>

25.2.2011