MASTERS APPLICANTS ONLY

INTRODUCTION OF NEW MASTER OF PHILOSOPHY PROGRAM FOR 2010

The University of Adelaide has introduced a new Master of Philosophy program for postgraduate research students.

The Master of Philosophy program will commence from 1 January 2010 and as from 1 January 2011 will supersede all named Masters by Research Degrees currently available. It will be the only Master degree at the University that meets the provisions of the Research Training Scheme (RTS). The Master of Philosophy was created to provide a single Masters level research degree which, like the Doctor of Philosophy program is immediately recognisable to employers and others as a benchmark of your standard of achievement in research.

The academic program rules are available at:

http://www.adelaide.edu.au/graduatecentre/pdf/master_of_philosophy_2010.pdf

During the 2010 transition period, it will still be possible to apply for a place in 2010 for a named Master by Research program in accordance with the relevant 2009 program rules. However, as the new Master of Philosophy program is the University's preferred option, you are encouraged to apply for this program.

Please contact the postgraduate coordinator if you wish to discuss which option is most suitable for you.

A list of postgraduate coordinators is available at:

<http://www.adelaide.edu.au/graduatecentre/forms/pgcoordinators.pdf>

*PLEASE NOTE: Applications for scholarship for Master of Philosophy applicants applying for entry in 2010 on the basis of a Bachelor qualification closed on 13 November 2009 although applications for candidature only may be lodged at any time. All other applicants with an Honours or equivalent qualification may still apply for scholarship outside the major round but there is no guarantee of an award being available.
