

From 2010, the Master of Philosophy supersedes all named Master by Research degrees at the University of Adelaide. However, during the 2010 transition period, an applicant who has been made an offer of a place in 2010 for a named Master by Research program and who does not wish to take up the University's offer to enrol instead in the Master of Philosophy (preferred option), will be permitted to enrol in the offered degree in accordance with the relevant 2009 program rules.
