Mentoring and Career Development: What’s the Relationship?

HDA Translational Research Seminar

Thursday 24 August, 3.30 - 5.30pm
Nibbles and drinks from 5.00pm

Union House – Margaret Murray room (level 4)
University of Adelaide

Three leading speakers will deliver their perspectives on the values of mentoring in a research environment, exploring whether there is a demonstrable relationship between mentoring and career development, and what an ideal mentoring relationship looks like.

“Mentoring & Career Development: What’s the Evidence?”
Mr James Burgess
Centre for Learning and Professional Development, University of Adelaide

“Mentoring & Career Development: A research mentor’s perspective”
Prof Caroline McMillen
Pro-Vice Chancellor & Vice President, University of South Australia

“Mentoring & Career Development: A research mentee’s perspective”
Dr Maria Makrides
Head of Applied Nutrition Group, Child Health Research Institute

Chaired by Dr Lisa Kettler
School of Psychology, University of Adelaide

Proudly sponsored by the Centre for Learning and Professional Development (CLPD)
University of Adelaide

RSVP by Thursday 17 August to anne.jurisevic@adelaide.edu.au