

Akademisches Orchester der Universität Stuttgart

Free concert—one night only!

Wednesday 2 April at 7.30pm Doors open at 7.00pm – no booking required

The Akademisches Orchester der Universität Stuttgart in Germany is about to commence its tour of South-East Australia.

The tour is three weeks in length and involves 65 young musicians, who will be visiting and performing with partner ensembles in Brisbane, Adelaide, Stawell, Melbourne and Sydney.

They are excitedly awaiting the opportunity to learn more about the country and the people, and to experience Australian nature, culture and way of life first hand.

On Wednesday 2nd of April, at 7.30pm in Elder Hall, they will perform Carl Maria von Weber's Freischütz-Overture, Beethoven's 7th Symphony in A major, and together with Laurens Patzlaff, a young and celebrated pianist, Gershwin's Concerto in F for Piano and Orchestra.

The Orchestra will also be joined by students from the Elder Conservatorium of Music.

Weber, Beethoven and Gershwin

We invite you to join the Akademisches Orchester der Universität Stuttgart for a free concert to celebrate the re-signing of the agreement of partnership between the universities of South Australia and Baden-Württemberg.

Elder Hall,
University of Adelaide

Wednesday 2 April 2008 at 7.30pm

Contact details:
Claire Oremland,
Elder Hall Concert Manager
(08) 8303 5925