

Research Unit for the Study of Society, Law and Religion

INVITATION TO OFFICIAL LAUNCH AND LECTURE
Thursday 13 November, 2008

RUSSLR

THE UNIVERSITY
OF ADELAIDE
AUSTRALIA

The Vice-Chancellor and President, Professor James McWha, is delighted to invite you to the Launch of the University's new Research Unit for the Study of Society, Law and Religion (RUSSLR).

RUSSLR is based in the Faculty of the Professions, and is the first centre or institute in Australia to study the relationship between society, law and religion in a sustained and focused way.

Dr Michael Spence has recently been appointed as the Vice-Chancellor and Principal of the University of Sydney. A graduate of Sydney and Oxford Universities, Dr Spence is a recognised international leader in the field of intellectual property theory. Before moving to the University of Sydney, Dr Spence had an outstanding twenty year academic and administrative career at Oxford University, where he was Head of the Law Faculty and Head of the Social Sciences Division. Dr Spence will launch RUSSLR and present a lecture entitled 'Law and Religion'.
