

Asian Studies Workshop Series

Thinking about Asia

Workshop 1

Australia's Ambivalent Re-Imagining of Asia

- How significant has Asia been in the Australian political imagination?
- How has 'Asia' operated as a sign and symbol in Australian domestic politics?
- How has Asia helped to define "Who We Are" in the international context?

Speakers

Prof Carol Johnson

Discipline of Politics, University of Adelaide

Prof Pal Ahluwalia

Pro-Vice Chancellor, Education, Arts and Social Sciences, University of South Australia

A/Prof Greg McCarthy

Head of School of Social Sciences, University of Adelaide

Date: Friday 7 August
Venue: Ligertwood, Room 529
Time: 1.10 – 2.00 pm

Refreshments available

All workshops are open to the public

CRICOS Provider Number 00123M

Further information is obtainable from workshop convenor
Dr Shoko Yoneyama (shoko.yoneyama@adelaide.edu.au)
Phone 8303 5187