

Course Readings: moving items in a reading list

Introduction

You can move items in your reading list both within and between sections by using the drag-and-drop function.

Procedure

1. Hover the mouse anywhere within the item that you wish to move until the blue Drag citation area appears.

The screenshot shows a course reading list for 'Australian indigenous languages'. The list is organized into sections, with 'Week 1' currently selected. Three items are visible:

- Item 1: 'Explainer: how Tasmania's Aboriginal people reclaimed a language, palawa kani'. Source: Kristyn Harman, The Conversation, July 19, 2018. Type: WEBSITE. Status: Complete. Action: View online.
- Item 2 (highlighted): 'Language fears: A linguistics experts is the warning indigenous Australian languages could die out without a concentrated effort to save them'. Source: Jessica Harmsen (Host); Robyn Powell (Reporter); Peter Naessan (Contributor). MIT Publishing, Melbourne (Vic.), 2013-07-25. Type: VIDEO. Status: Complete. Action: View online. A blue 'Drag citation' area is visible on the right side of this item.
- Item 3: 'Mutha tongue'. Source: Payne, Alex, Big Issue Australia (531), 2017, 28 - 29. Type: ARTICLE. Status: Complete. Action: View online.

2. Click-and-drag in the blue area to move the item up or down.
3. Once the item is in the desired location, release the mouse button.
