

THE UNIVERSITY
of ADELAIDE

Service Catalogue

---

University of Adelaide
Library

2021

adelaide.edu.au/library

Introduction

---

The Library Service Catalogue lists a wide range of user-facing services and resources available to University students, researchers, staff, and other users of the library.

Expert information management advice
and support

Expert advice and support for the discovery of information resources

Expert advice and support for the management of collections

Access to flexible facilities
and spaces for learning
and study

- Support and individual consultations tailored to research or information literacy
- University recordkeeping (Content Manager TRIM) support including training, licensing and centralised file creation through to disposal.
- Advice, advocacy, and support for Copyright, including permission requests
- Advice, advocacy, and support for Open Access, regarding the University's research outputs
- Preservation and archival storage of University records and research data
- Advice for University wide information management governance and the Information Management (IM) policy.
- Advice concerning information privacy

- Access to an extensive range of online and physical collections including borrowing, requesting
- Reference services to assist users in finding and accessing the information they need
- Information literacy skills development for current and future students
- Access to learning materials for students and support of academics via Course Readings
- Document Delivery including Interlibrary Loans and digitisation requests (scanned copies of a journal article)

Expert advice and
support for the discovery of information resources

- Preservation, curation and access to physical collections
- Preservation, curation and access to the University's historic and archival records, both physical and digital
- Preservation, curation and access to University research outputs in the institutional repository
- Curation of quality metadata to facilitate discovery and access
- Promotion of collections through exhibitions, displays, events and tours

Expert advice and
support for the management of
collections

- 24 hour study space (Barr Smith Library only)
- Individual and group study spaces
- Lounge style study-break seating area
- Rooms to accommodate meetings, seminars, and workshops
- Computers, iPads, printers, photocopiers and high quality scanners including large format scanning
- Height adjustable desks

Access to flexible
facilities
and spaces for learning
and study