

South Australia Illustrated Gift Cards

An elegantly presented folio of eight gift cards, two each of four illustrations from George French Angus' South Australia Illustrated.

Produced by the Friends of the University of Adelaide Library and Art & Heritage Collections to promote and support the cultural collections of the University of Adelaide.

George French Angus was the eldest son of George Fife Angus, one of the men behind the establishment of the new colony of South Australia. He painted some of the earliest views of South Australia, and in 1847 oversaw the printing in London of the magnificent folio South Australia Illustrated, which has served ever since as a glowing snapshot of South Australia in 1844.

Sir Samuel Way Bequest In 1916 the University of Adelaide Library received its largest single contribution of books with the bequest of Sir Samuel Way, former Chancellor of the University and the Chief Justice of South Australia. Some 16,400 volumes were selected from his libraries at Montefiore and the Supreme Court, increasing the total library collection by sixty percent with many works of rarity and significance. Sir Samuel Way's gift has an enduring impact, and forms the core of the Rare Book Collection of the Barr Smith Library Special Collections.
