

FACULTY OF THE PROFESSIONS GRADUATE ATTRIBUTES 2007

Master of Finance and Business Economics

Knowledge

- 1) Knowledge and understanding of the content of the fields of finance and business economics at advanced levels that are internationally recognised

Specifically, the program will:

- 2) The ability to analyse, evaluate and synthesise information from a wide variety of sources and experiences relevant to the fields of finance and business economics
- 3) Knowledge of the key factors involved in economic and financial decision-making processes

Skills

- 1) A growth in critical thinking and problem-solving skills with respect to the fields of finance and business economics
- 2) Ability to evaluate and synthesise information and existing knowledge from a number of sources and experiences
- 3) The significant improvement in their ability to take a leadership role in business and in public sector organisations and a commitment to the highest standards of professional endeavour
- 4) Capacity to engage with current issues of significance in commerce and government
- 5) Ability to recognize the limits of the professional discipline and a capacity to identify, develop and apply alternative methods to coincide diverging interests
- 6) Capacity to participate in teamwork
- 7) High level oral communication skills
- 8) High level written communication skills
- 9) The capacity to engage in life-long learning

Attitudes and Values

- 1) A commitment to high levels of academic scholarship
- 2) A commitment to business ethics and an appreciation of social justice through organisations that pursue good governance and conform to legal and professional standards and societies norms