

FACULTY OF THE PROFESSIONS GRADUATE ATTRIBUTES

Bachelor of Teaching double degree

Attributes

- 1) Knowledge and understanding of the students' chosen discipline areas
- 2) Cognitive skills in analysing, evaluating and synthesising information
- 3) The capacity for critical thinking and problem solving
- 4) Interpersonal and communication skills of a high order
- 5) The ability to fulfil leadership roles within the teaching profession and community at large
- 6) Proficiency in the appropriate and responsible use of modern technologies
- 7) An awareness of the need to commit to responsible participation within their discipline and their profession, as well as their local communities and the wider world
- 8) An understanding of social justice including aspects related to moral standards and cultural diversity

Skills

- 1) A significant understanding of basic domains of knowledge – gained through the discipline-based undergraduate degree
- 2) A competence in constructing a pedagogical approach to teaching in the classroom – gained through the courses in the Bachelor of Teaching and in courses that might be designed especially in the other degree
- 3) A capacity to integrate the particular and special concerns of families, peers and neighbourhoods into their teaching – gained from ongoing experiences in a variety of schools, from Year 1 of the double degree
- 4) An understanding of the existing school systems and the ability to explore how the next generation of schools might most appropriately be designed