

AMY KAIM

In 2008 Amy completed an Arts degree majoring in psychology, while also completing an Arts Internship whereby she undertook a research project at the South Australian Council of Social Service (SACOSS). Angela was subsequently offered a part time position at SACOSS and worked there while completing studies in the Psychology Honours program. Currently, she is employed as a graduate officer within SA Health.