

ANTHEA UREN

Anthea completed a Bachelor of Arts with a focus on Psychology, Philosophy and English. She currently is the Bequest Officer at the RSPCA. Anthea has continued her counseling education at the Alfred James Bereavement Educational Services and Narrative Therapy through the Dulwich Centre. Anthea has been astounded at the positive response she has received since taking on this role in helping people cope with the loss of a loved pet.