

Ian Pearce

Ian has a BA, DipAppPsych, MPsych, MAPS He graduated from Flinders University in 1980 and has held various positions in the intellectual disability field as a clinician, senior practitioner and manager in both the public and private sector. Also held clinical and leadership roles in child and adolescent mental health, supporting people with mental impairment in the court system and a brief time in a leadership role in Correctional Services.