

KYM PREISS

Kym has a Science background, along with a PhD in Psychology. Aside from his work with UniSA as a health and medicines researcher, which weighs heavily on clinical epidemiology (medical statistics), Kym is interested in human visual processing and related psychometric testing issues.