

TARA RYAN

Tara is employed at the Para Hills Private Nursing Home in the behaviour management department. In her role, she interacts with all levels of staff whilst carrying out depression and cognitive assessments on residents. Tara also conducts education seminars for staff and consultations. She has endeavoured to further her studies through a graduate entry social work course.