

Vikki Booth

Vikki holds a B.A. (Psychology major), Grad. Dip. Soc. Science (Health Counselling). Vikki has worked in Research, project management, program and policy development roles in the public service and universities (child and adolescent mental health, crime prevention). Currently, she is Research Institute Manager, UniSA. Guest lecturer and author - psychological intersections in criminology.