

THE UNIVERSITY of ADELAIDE

With more than 135 years of educational experience, the University of Adelaide is one of Australia's most prestigious universities. Our programs are underpinned by innovation and relevance and taught by high-quality staff who are national and international leaders in their fields.

Since its establishment in 1874, the University has developed a reputation for excellence in teaching, learning and research. From the start, the University of Adelaide has been one of Australia's most progressive institutions. It was the first Australian university to grant degrees in science, the first to establish a Conservatorium of Music and the first to admit women to academic programs—in 1881.

At the University of Adelaide you will be studying in an environment that pursues excellence, values creativity, welcomes cultural diversity, and gives its graduates the opportunity to make a Life Impact on the world.

NATURE

Adelaide has conservation and national parks only minutes from the city, perfect for bushwalking, picnics, and spotting native animals. Take scenic walks at Waterfall Gully and Morialta, or visit Cleland Wildlife Park to see koalas and other fauna.

OUTBACK

The Flinders Ranges possess some of the world's oldest fossils and ancient Aboriginal stone carvings. See the huge cliffs and whale breeding grounds of the Great Australian Bight, and underground residences in the opal-mining town of Coober Pedy.

WINE

South Australia is truly a wine-lover's paradise, with the Barossa Valley, Clare Valley, McLaren Vale, and Adelaide Hills wine districts all within an hour's drive of Adelaide.

CULTURE

Take a stroll along Adelaide's cultural boulevard, North Terrace, taking in the State Library, Museum and Art Gallery. For insight into Aboriginal culture, visit the indigenous multi-arts centre, Tandanya, in the East End.

BEACHES

South Australia has hundreds of unspoilt beaches, and activities to suit everyone including swimming, surfing, boating, fishing and just watching the sun set.

SHOPPING

In the city centre, Rundle Mall has the biggest concentration of department and chain stores, while Rundle Street is known for its trendy boutiques, pubs and cafes. In the suburbs, visit King William Road in Hyde Park, Norwood and HarbourTown.
