- ARC Linkage Projects 2008 Round 2 Applications

The Linkage Projects Round 2 Application Form for funding commencing in July 2008 is now available in GAMS via the ARC website: <https://gams.arc.gov.au/>

To assist applicants to prepare proposals, the ARC's 'Instructions to Applicants' document is also available at: http://www.arc.gov.au/ncgp/lp/lp_instructions.htm

For full review by the Research Branch proposals must be submitted in GAMS (to 'arcvalid' status), and the original along with one identical hard copy of the proposal must be received by the branch Monday 5 November 2007.

Further information and contacts can be found at the Research Branch website: <http://www.adelaide.edu.au/rb/arc/LinkProj.html>

Australia Fellowships Round Three

A reminder that the closing time for submission of Federation Fellowships proposals (for funding commencing in 2008) is 5.00pm (AEST) Friday 19 October 2007.

- The Australia Fellowship (AF) is a pre-eminent award for outstanding health and medical researchers across all disciplines. Each Fellowship is worth a total value of $4 million. The second round of AF awards was announced by the Prime Minister in September.
- AF Round Three will commence early in 2008, and will be advertised later this year through the usual channels. Leading researchers with a vision for the benefit of Australian health and medical research are encouraged to apply. International researchers are also eligible, provided they meet certain conditions.
- We urge all research institutions and researchers to encourage your international friends who are leading researchers, whether Australian or not, to begin to plan applications now. We are looking for leaders in research excellence in any field relevant to health, with a vision for the future and demonstrated capacity to achieve visionary plans. An Australian passport is not a prerequisite.

More information about the Australia Fellowships scheme can be found at: <http://www.nhmrc.gov.au/fellows/apply/granttype/career/index.htm> [57]

as well as the Research Branch: <http://www.adelaide.edu.au/rb/arc/FedFell.html>

Welcome Paula

The Research Branch extends a warm welcome to Paula Rosenbauer who has joined Chelsea DuBois in the Sciences Non-medical portfolio as Assistant Grants Officer, whilst Louise Moore takes a year maternity leave.

Paula has hit the ground running and can be contacted on 33388 or [paula.rosenbauer@adelaide.edu.au \[59\]](mailto:paula.rosenbauer@adelaide.edu.au). You will no doubt come across her at some stage in your grant administration travels. Welcome Paula!!

Information Session on Canadian Research Grants :

Research Grants Seminar (Humanities and Social Science) - for academics and Researchers on Canadian research grants in the Humanities and Social Sciences.

Tuesday 16 October 2007, 10.00 am: Hoods Room of the University Club

At this seminar there will be a PowerPoint presentation on Canadian government research grant programs in the Humanities and the Social Sciences. This covers the Canadian Studies grants that are managed by the High Commission in Canberra as well as funding available from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC). Some of the grants are also available for postgraduate students for short research trips to Canada as part of their doctoral or masters research.

Research Grants Seminar (Health Science, Science, and Engineering) - for academics and researchers on Canadian research grants in the Sciences, Engineering and Health.

Tuesday 16 October 2007, 11.00 am: Hoods Room of the University Club

At this seminar there will be a PowerPoint presentation on grants provided by the Canadian government's three Research Councils: the Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council (NSERC); the Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR) and the National Research Council (NRC). Postdoctoral Fellowships are also available.

GRANTS

BHP Billiton Corporate Programs - Community Foundations

Where BHP Billiton's presence in a country is significant, we often provide support for provincial or national programs in addition to local activities. In many of these instances, community foundations have been established. These foundations include external representation, often a community representative, to ensure a full understanding of the community's needs and an ability to identify appropriate projects to address the issues.

Closing date is Thursday November 25.

New Australian Code for the Responsible Conduct of Research

The NHMRC, in partnership with the Australian Research Council and Universities Australia, and through extensive public consultation, has developed the Australian Code for the Responsible Conduct of Research. The Code replaces the Joint NHMRC/AVCC Statement and Guidelines on Research Practice (1997).

The Code advocates and describes best practice in research for researchers and institutions, as well as setting out a framework for handling breaches of the Code. While the document is aimed at universities and researchers in the public sector, it can be applied by any organisation involved in conducting research.

The Code provides advice on how to manage research data and materials; how to publish and disseminate research findings (including proper attribution of authorship); obligations in peer review; how to collaborate across institutions; and how to manage conflicts of interest. The Code also provides guidance to institutions when establishing independent external inquiries to evaluate allegations of serious misconduct.

The Code is written specifically for universities and other public sector research institutions and is also intended to inform the public about the standards expected of Australian research institutes and individual researchers.

Compliance with the Code is a prerequisite for National Health and Medical Research Council funding. Researchers are encouraged to acquaint themselves with, and meet, the requirements of the new Code as soon as possible.

The new code can be found here <http://www.nhmrc.gov.au/publications/synopses/r39syn.htm>

A summary of the new code can be found here http://www.nhmrc.gov.au/publications/synopses/r39syn_summary.htm

Any questions concerning the introduction of the new Code should be directed to the Research Branch (simon.brennan@adelaide.edu.au [87]) in the first instance.

2007 University of Adelaide DEST HERDC Publications Collection arrangements.

Academics, Students and University of Adelaide Affiliates are reminded that their publications for 2007 can be submitted to their School's publication coordinator.

The deadline for submission of publications to the Research Branch is 31 March 2008.

The process for the 2007 DEST Higher Education Research Data Collection of publications has undergone changes aimed at simplifying the processes in the disciplines and schools. Support material is located at <http://www.adelaide.edu.au/rb/pub/>.

The objective of this annual collection is to

- comply with the requirements of the Department of Education, Science and Training (DEST) Higher Education Research Data Collection (HERDC)
- provide data for Strategy and Planning <http://www.adelaide.edu.au/sp/statistics/research/>
- provide data for research committees and research management
- provide references for the University of Adelaide's repository to provide access to the public via the internet to the University of Adelaide's research publications

The collection is used by the Group of 8 Universities for comparative analysis of research performance.

The University's publication performance in the DEST Higher Education Research Data Collection (HERDC) in 2006 increased from 1550.3 to 1674.0 an increase of 8% or 124 DEST points. 2006 University of Adelaide DEST HERDC Publications are available for the Research Branch Website <http://www.adelaide.edu.au/rb/pub/Pub2006.html>. The publications are presented by School / Discipline within Faculties and provides a bibliographic listing of publications that where included in the Higher Education Research Data Collection

Upcoming Korea Exchange Program

The Australia-Korea Foundation (AKF), the Australian Academy of Science (AAS) and the Australian Academy of Technological Sciences and Engineering (ATSE) wish to enhance Australia-Korea links in science and technology. The aim of the program is to develop an awareness of, and interest in Australia's research expertise in Korea; and an awareness of, and interest in Korea's research expertise in Australia.

In the next month or so AAS and ATSE will be advertising for young Australian scientists to participate in an exchange visit to Korea during mid 2008.
