Roseworthy Campus and Student Fund

Aim of the Fund

The Fund is established to maintain and develop excellence in education, training and research at the Roseworthy Campus.

Objectives and Functions of the Fund

Without limiting the aim of the Fund as set out above, the objectives and functions of the Fund shall be all or any of the following:

1. To develop the physical, academic, cultural and recreational facilities on the Campus for the benefit of students and staff resident or otherwise connected with the Campus;
2. To award scholarships, trusts, donations, endowments or gifts with the object of funding and encouraging study and research in any of the areas relevant to and represented on the Campus whether on the Campus or at any other post-secondary educational institution in Australia approved by the Co-Patrons;
3. To commission, promote or subsidise academic research projects into any of the academic areas represented on the Campus whether at the Campus or any other post-secondary educational institution in Australia approved by the Co-Patrons;
4. To publish or subsidise the publication of the results of academic research projects undertaken at the Campus;
5. To disseminate or subsidise the dissemination of educational materials relating to the Campus;
6. By means of scholarships, grants sponsorships, prizes or other financial assistance to support students or intending students of the University in pursuit of their studies on Campus;
7. To convene, organise and conduct seminars, lectures, classes, courses of study, presentations or public forums with the intention of furthering the objects of the Campus;
8. To solicit and accept gifts, donations, trusts, endowments, bequests, subsidies, sponsorships or grants from any individual, organization, association, estate or government body to assist the Fund in carrying out its functions, and to raise funds for all or any part of the Fund's objectives;
9. To advise and promote the activities of the Fund by any means or medium;
10. To do all such acts, matters or things as are or appear to the Co-Patrons to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objectives.
