GENERAL RULES AND CONDITIONS

Please read this information carefully.

Cross-Institutional Students

Students enrolled in a program of study at one higher education institution who want to count courses offered at one (or more) other universities as part of their award may be admitted to such courses as cross-institutional students.

Home Institution

The university at which the award will be conferred is referred to as the home institution. For advice on submitting your application for enrolment as a cross-institutional student, consult your Faculty/School administrator at the home institution.

Host University

The University of Adelaide is the "host" university at which cross enrolment in courses is sought. You will need to obtain permission from your home institution before lodging this form with the University of Adelaide.

Quotas

Normal quotas that form part of selection processes to award programs do not apply. However, the University of Adelaide may not admit cross-institutional students in cases where insufficient places are available for its own students.

Conditions of Admission

Cross-institutional students are subject to the same Statutes, Regulations, Rules and Policies as apply to students enrolled in an award course at the University of Adelaide. These Statutes, Regulations, Rules and Policies relate to attendance at classes, performance or work, discipline, conduct and progress and are to be found in the University's publications.

If a cross-institutional student is subsequently admitted to a program leading to an award at the University of Adelaide courses passed while enrolled on a cross-institutional basis may only be counted towards an award if specifically approved by the relevant Faculty or School.

Invoices and Commonwealth Assistance Notices

All invoices and Commonwealth Assistance Notices are generated electronically through Access Adelaide. Emails are sent to University of Adelaide student email accounts advising when an invoice/notice is available.

Fee Status

- If you are a Commonwealth Supported student you must complete a Request for Commonwealth Support and HECS-HELP form. This includes students who are New Zealand Citizens and Permanent Residents who are eligible to enrol as Commonwealth Supported students. Forms are available from the Student Centre. Before completing this form you must read the information for Commonwealth Supported Students booklet, available from <http://www.goingtouni.gov.au> (hardcopy is available from the Student Centre) to understand your obligations.
- Domestic fee paying students may be eligible to apply for FEE-HELP assistance by completing the Request for FEE-HELP Assistance form. FEE-HELP is a scheme that operates in a similar way to HECS-HELP in that eligible students can borrow from the Commonwealth government for some or all of their tuition fees (within set limits) and repay this through the taxation system. Forms are available from the Student Centre. Before completing this form you must read the FEE-HELP Information booklet, available from <http://www.goingtouni.gov.au> (hardcopy is available from the Student Centre) to understand your obligations.
- International students will be liable for international tuition fees.

Withdrawal

If you wish to withdraw from your cross institutional course you must officially withdraw on the Course Drop form of the University of Adelaide. If you do not wish to consume Student Learning Entitlement (SLE) or incur a Student Contribution/tuition charge, the Course Drop form must be lodged before the census date (see Critical Dates for Summer School at www.adelaide.edu.au/student/dates/). Withdrawals lodged after these dates may be permitted but you will consume SLE and incur a Student Contribution Charge.

TO LODGE THIS FORM:

1. Choose the course(s) you wish to study during Summer School 2010 at the University of Adelaide and enter the details in Section 2.
2. Obtain authorisation from your home institution by having the form signed by an authorised person from your home institution.
3. Authorisation from the University of Adelaide will be sought by the Summer & Winter School on your behalf.
