

The Cowan Scholarship 2010

Applications are invited from prospective students for the Cowan Scholarship. The Cowan Scholarship is offered to two commencing students and is dependent on financial constraint. The applicants must be supported by a reference from either their school or the Rural Counsellor's Network. Most scholarships are awarded to candidates from rural or regional backgrounds.

This Scholarship is open to students who are Australian citizens or permanent residents of Australia and will be awarded each year to provide up to three years accommodation at Roseworthy Residential College.

Applicants need to demonstrate financial need and be able to provide supporting documentary evidence at the time of applying e.g. details of income tested Commonwealth income support payment such as Youth Allowance, Austudy, ABSTUDY benefits, or other details of their financial circumstances.

Applicants also need to provide evidence of potential for tertiary study from a referee who can comment personally and confidentially on:

- Suitability for further study
- Study habits
- Value of the Cowan Scholarship to the nominee and family

Selection for this scholarship will be made according to academic merit and financial need. Academic merit will be determined according to TER scores or according to academic records from post secondary level study.

The Scholarship must be taken up in the year in which it is offered; acceptance of the Scholarship offer cannot be deferred. If a student declines the Scholarship offer, the Scholarship will be offered to the next eligible student.

Once applications open the application form is downloadable from the University's website at <http://www.adelaide.edu.au/scholarships/undergrad/> or available from the Student Centre.

Applications for this scholarship close Friday 5 March 2010.
