

The J.R. Barker Scholarships 2012

These scholarships were founded in memory of the late Mr John Robert Barker, and are available to students undertaking research in connection with primary production in South Australia (more particularly in the livestock and wool industries).

Three scholarships are available to full-time students enrolled in an Honours program at the University of Adelaide. Students must be undertaking research in connection with primary production in South Australia, with a preference given to students focusing on the livestock and wool industries.

Graduates of other universities are also eligible to apply.

The scholarships will be awarded on the basis of academic merit and relevant research.

The scholarships are available for one year and are valued at $4,000 each.

The Scholarship must be taken up in the year in which it is offered; acceptance of the Scholarship offer cannot be deferred. If a student declines the Scholarship offer, the Scholarship will be offered to the next eligible student.

Applications for this scholarship will close Friday 2 March 2012
