

The Aileen and Bert Kollosche Scholarship for the Study of Australian Flora

Applications are invited from full-time students enrolling in 2012 in an honours, postgraduate research, or postgraduate coursework degree (where the research component comprises of a minimum 12 points) undertaking study relevant to the cultivation and/or preservation of Australian flora.

Students must be Australian Citizens or Permanent Residents of Australia and preference will be given to honours applicants. In the case of postgraduate research applicants, the scholarship is normally intended as a supplement to a major scholarship held by the recipient, subject to the terms and conditions of the major scholarship.

The successful applicant will be selected by the University on the grounds of his or her academic merit.

The Scholarship offers $2200 for 2012 which will be paid in two instalments following enrolment checks on census dates.

The Scholarship must be taken up in the year in which it is offered; acceptance of the Scholarship offer cannot be deferred. If a student declines the Scholarship offer, the Scholarship will be offered to the next eligible student.

Applications for this scholarship close Friday 2 March 2012
