

The Ranson Mortlock Scholarships 2012

For applicants to undertake an Honours project relevant to soil erosion and the regeneration of pastures on pastoral land

The Ranson Mortlock Trust was established in 1936 following a donation from the Ranson Mortlock family in memory of the late Mr Frederick Ranson Mortlock. The University of Adelaide offers the scholarships to students enrolled full time in Honours programs undertaking research projects relevant to soil erosion and regeneration of pastures and pastoral lands.

Two scholarships are available to full-time students enrolled in Honours programs at the University of Adelaide. The scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic merit and research relevance.

The scholarships are available for one year and are valued at $5,000 each.

The scholarship must be taken up in the year in which it is offered; acceptance of the scholarship offer cannot be deferred. If a student declines the scholarship offer, the scholarship will be offered to the next eligible student.
