

Trevor Dillon Agronomic Roseworthy Study Scholarship 2012

This Scholarship has been established in memory of Trevor Dillon, a noted Agronomist and graduate of Roseworthy College who made a significant contribution to the development and adoption of agricultural technology in South Australia. The Scholarship has been established by the Roseworthy Old Collegians Association (ROCA) within the framework of the Roseworthy Campus and Student Fund (The Fund).

This Scholarship is open to students who are Australian citizens or permanent residents of Australia and undertaking a Bachelor of Agricultural Sciences program of study at the University of Adelaide on a full time basis as a Commonwealth Supported student. Students must be enrolled on the census dates (31 March and 31 August each year) to be eligible to receive this scholarship.

The Scholarship will provide an amount of $5,000 for the first year of the approved program for which the student is offered the Scholarship. Selection will be based on academic merit and financial need.

Applicants must be able to demonstrate financial need by providing supporting documentation at the time of application, eg details of income tested Commonwealth income support payment, such as Youth Allowance, Austudy, ABSTUDY benefits, or other details of their financial circumstances.

Students in receipt of other major scholarships administered by the University, which are provided to assist with accommodation costs, are not eligible for this Scholarship. The Scholarship must be taken up in the year in which it is offered; acceptance of the Scholarship offer cannot be deferred. If a student declines the Scholarship offer, the Scholarship will be offered to the next eligible student.

Applications for this scholarship close on Friday 2 March 2012
