

THE UNIVERSITY of ADELAIDE

[CAFFEINATED LIT.]

The Caffeinated Lit. reading group is run by the Writing Centre to support vocabulary development and reading comprehension. The reading group runs as a 6-week course through semester.

The sessions are a way to expand your knowledge of the English language over a cup of coffee in a casual group setting.

These sessions are open to all international students. Each session will focus on a particular short passage of text that is both interesting and challenging.

Students will be given a booklet of extended readings and exercises that you can do at home to prepare for each session.

If you are preparing for your IELTS speaking test or the LANTITE, this group is designed to help build your skills and confidence.

What: A 6-week course of reading stories for language and meaning-making

When: During Semester 1 of 2019, these sessions will be held on Fridays from 10am to 11am during teaching weeks starting again in Week 8 (May 10, 2019)

Where: The Hughes Building Room 111b

How: Drop into the Writing Centre anytime to book a spot or email writingcentre@adelaide.edu.au
