SYLLABUSES

Free 2026 syllabus downloads

For the first time, digital editions of all 2026 AMEB syllabuses will be available to download free of charge at ameb.edu.au/syllabuses.

This includes individual instrument syllabuses, syllabuses grouped by instrument family, and the complete 2026 Manual of Syllabuses (digital edition). This exciting new initiative reflects AMEB's ongoing commitment to accessibility and support for teachers and candidates throughout Australia.

The printed edition of the 2026 Manual of Syllabuses will continue to be available for purchase from ameb.edu.au/shop and from leading music retailers.

Regulations: 21.3 Practical Gradings and Descriptors

The Practical Gradings and Descriptors (Section 21.3 of the AMEB Regulations, located in the front section of the Manual of Syllabuses and in all downloadable syllabuses) have been refined to improve clarity and ensure greater consistency in interpretation.

Piano Series 19

AMEB is proud to announce the launch of Piano Series 19 – a full suite of grade books, handbooks and recordings (Preliminary to Grade 8) available as an additional resource for users of the current Piano syllabus. Series 19 includes exciting and challenging repertoire across a variety of styles, representing a wealth of new options for candidates and their teachers.

The works featured in Piano Series 19 have been added to the Piano syllabus in the 2026 Manual of Syllabuses and downloadable digital syllabuses. Where these works previously appeared in the Manual Lists, they have been moved to the relevant grade book listings.

Beyond this update there has been no alteration to the Manual Lists in the Piano syllabus, and no grade book series has been withdrawn as a result of Series 19 being added.

There are also no changes to the technical work requirements in the current syllabus, which continue to be outlined in the Piano Technical Work Level 1 and Level 2 books (2018).

The following publications, available from December 2025, may be used with the existing syllabus:

- Piano Series 19* – Preliminary to Grade 8 (2025)
- Piano Series 19 Handbook* – Level 1 (2025, hardcopy edition)
- Piano Series 19 Handbook* – Level 2 (2025, hardcopy edition)
- Piano Series 19 Handbooks* – Preliminary to Grade 8 (2025, digital editions)

Additionally, the following resources will be available in 2026:

Piano Series 19 Recordings – Preliminary to Grade 8 (available to download from ameb.edu.au and from music streaming platforms).

Teaching Skills Videos

AMEB is also proud to have launched a new resource to support studio teachers as well as candidates for AMEB's Teaching syllabuses: AMEB Teaching Skills Videos. This is a series of on-demand professional development videos that cover core aspects of music teaching, featuring leading music pedagogy researchers and practitioners. The videos are being released progressively, with each addressing one or more chapters from the AMEB Teaching Companion text (2023).

The first video, Music Teaching Foundations with Dr Jennifer Blackwell, is available now, exploring theories of learning, their application to music, and evidence-based teaching practices.

The videos are available for purchase and access through AMEB's online platform, SCORE – score.ameb.edu.au.
