

Eva Lines Memorial Prize for Piano (AMEB)

OFFICE USE ONLY

Establishment

In 1952, Eva Lines bequeathed to the University the sum of $1,000 for the purpose of founding a piano scholarship (or prize) to be called the 'Eva Lines Memorial Scholarship (or Prize) for Piano'.

Title

1. The prize shall be known as the 'Eva Lines Memorial Prize for Piano (AMEB)'.

Value

2. The value of the Prize shall be $1,000 or such other amount as the University shall from time to time determine provided that the value of the prize does not exceed the annual distribution of income available from the Endowment Fund.

Eligibility

3. To be eligible for the Prize, candidates must live outside the Adelaide metropolitan area as determined by a postcode as defined by the Australian Government Department of Home Affairs website, and be in financial need.
4. Candidates, or their guardians, must be able to demonstrate financial need and be able to provide supporting documentary evidence at the time of application, e.g. School card, details of income tested Commonwealth income support payment, such as Youth Allowance, Family Tax Benefit, Farmer Household Allowance, Newstart Allowance, Austudy, ABSTUDY benefits, or other details of their financial circumstances.
5. Candidates are ineligible if they have provided false or misleading information that has a relationship to the awarding of this Prize.

Selection of Candidate

6. The Prize shall be awarded annually to the candidate who, being eligible, is considered by the Australian Music Examinations Board examiners most worthy to receive the award based on financial need and results of their Grade 5 or Grade 6 piano examinations conducted in South Australia by the Australian Music Examinations Board.
7. The Prize shall not be awarded to any person more than once.
8. If the Prize is not awarded in any year, then the available income distribution shall be added to the capital sum in the Endowment Fund.

Rules

Administration and Variations

9. The Prize will be administered by the Coursework Scholarships and Prizes Office.
10. The University may vary the rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.
11. Once the Prize has been withdrawn for that year, it may be re-awarded to the next eligible student at the discretion of the Australian Music Examinations Board and subject to available funding.
