

University of South Australia

Government of South Australia
Department for Energy and Mining

THE UNIVERSITY of ADELAIDE

CRITCON 2023

Discovery, Characterisation and Processing of Critical Minerals

22 to 26 May 2023

National Wine Centre, Adelaide

Institute for Sustainability,
Energy and Resources

CRITCON 2023 will bring together industry, government and academia to showcase the latest projects, research and developments in critical minerals in Australia.

Register here

[www.adelaide.edu.au/
australian-critical-minerals-research-centre/
registration](https://www.adelaide.edu.au/australian-critical-minerals-research-centre/registration)

This conference will feature a three-day technical program of keynote, oral and poster presentations (23rd to 25th May), preceded by a workshop (22nd) and followed by a field trip (26th) to showcase South Australia's critical minerals potential.

Confirmed Speakers

- Aaron Einthal - Cobalt Blue
- Anita Parbhakar Fox - University of Queensland
- Anouk Borst - KU Leuven & Royal Museum for Central Africa
- Eun-Jung Holden - University of Western Australia
- Gavin Mudd - RMIT University
- Graeme McDonald - Core Lithium
- Joel Brugger - Monash University
- John Mavrogenes - ANU
- Jonas Addai-Mensah - University of South Australia
- Kevin Galvin - University Newcastle
- Margaux Le Vaillant - CSIRO
- Michael Anenburg - ANU
- Nigel Cook - University of Adelaide
- Owen Missen - University of Tasmania
- Ross Chandler - ANU

CRITCON 2023

Abstracts submission

by 24 Apr

www.adelaide.edu.au/australian-critical-minerals-research-centre/abstracts

Enquiries? Contact

carl.spandler@adelaide.edu.au

make history.