Call for Posters

Students and early career researchers (ECRs) of ISF-6 are invited to present a poster of their work at the 6th ISF Workshop Meeting 6 during the informal dinner on the first day. At least one prize will be awarded to posters from students and ECRs by a judging team comprising 3 senior researchers and 2 students. A certificate and $200 will be awarded.

Students and ECRs are also encouraged to participate to the 3-minute Poster Competition that will be held in the poster pitch session in the afternoon of the first day. An expression of interest (EOI) to participate this competition is necessarily submitted through Google Form prior to July 15, 2022. Only the presentations with EOI will be assessed by a panel of 4-5 senior researchers based on the judging criteria of (see more details here)

- Comprehension and content

- Presentation provided clear background and significance to the research question
- Presentation clearly described the research strategy/design and the results/findings of the research
- Presentation clearly described the conclusions, outcomes and impact of the research and

- Engagement and communication

- The oration was delivered clearly, and the language was appropriate for a non-specialist audience
- The PowerPoint slide was well-defined and enhanced the presentation
- The presenter conveyed enthusiasm for their research and captured and maintained the audience's attention

A certificate and $400 will be awarded to the winner. The winner will be communicated on the media of the Combustion Institute. If possible, the 3-minute Poster Competition will be recorded, and the winning presentation will be shared on the social media of the Combustion Institute as well.

All the recipients will be announced in the Closing remarks session on the second day.

Register your intention to submit a poster with your registration to the ISF workshop before July 15, 2022. If you cannot access the EOI registration form for 3-M competition, please directly Contact Us.
