Online Teaching Model – Undergraduate Programs

Who is responsible for the Online teaching model?	University of Adelaide & OUA
UoA Escalation Point	OUAhelp@adelaide.edu.au
Key Information	• There are three (3) Trimester based teaching periods. • There is no direct entry into any of the OUA programs. OUA students must complete four (4) core pathway Open Access courses for the program/s being offered in 2022. • Student must Pass the four (4) core Open Access courses before being eligible for admission into the degree program/s. • There is no final examination component for any of the courses. • The trimester model allows for a flexible route through the courses within a program. • OUA model - OUA will process and manage all admissions, enrolments and amendments in their system. Students manage their enrolments and fees through the OUA Student Hub portal. • All admission and enrolment data will be transferred directly into PeopleSoft Campus Solutions (CS) via an automated secure data exchange process. • Students manage their enrolments and fees through the OUA Student Hub portal. • The University is responsible for all students post census, all aspects of learning and teaching, grades and results and graduation processes.

Who is responsible for which operational activities?

OUA

Attract Students
Nurture Leads
Nurture Relationship/Engagement
Manage Application
Enrol students
Manage student funding
Manage exams
Re-enrol students

Upload student enrolment data

UoA

Deliver unit/program via MyUni

Manage student learning to graduation

Upload student results data