

PEACE BUILDING COLLOQUIUM: CAN ENEMIES BECOME FRIENDS? FROM CONFLICT TO PEACE BUILDING

SEMESTERS 1 AND 2, 2015
THURSDAYS 6:00 - 7:30 PM
NAPIER GO4

Convenors: Katherine Goode (Abraham Institute), Ghil'ad Zuckermann (Linguistics), Vesna Drapac (History), Felix Patrikeef (Politics)

Thursday, 7 May - Can Enemies Become Friends? Overview and introduction to the Truth and Reconciliation Process

– Associate Professor Felix Patrikeeff
Department of Politics, The University of Adelaide

Thursday, 14 May---Psychology and Neuroscience

– Dr. Michael Musker,
Research Fellow at the Mind & Brain Theme, South Australian Health and Medical Research Institute

Thursday, 21 May– The Truth and Reconciliation process in Cambodia – playing by their own rules

– Jack Fogl
Assistant to the Defence in the trial of the Khmer Rouge in Cambodia

Thursday, 28 May – The Power of the Media Reporting Conflict: Truth, Lies and Propaganda

– Dr Ron Hoenig
School of Communication, International Studies and Languages, University of South Australia

SEMESTER BREAK

Thursday, 6 August – The Clash of Cultures and Religions in the film “Serenades”

– Writer/director Mojgan Khadem will present a film set in the 1890s in the remote South Australian desert, inhabited by Aborigines, Lutheran German missionaries and Afghan cameleers

Thursday, 13 August---West Papua: The Struggle For Self Determination

– Peter King
Research Associate in Government and International Relations at the University of Sydney and Co-convenor of West Papua Project at Sydney University.

Thursday, 20 August – Lexical Terrorism: How Language is used to Demonize People and Create the Concept of the Other

– Professor Ghil'ad Zuckermann
Chair of Linguistics and Endangered Languages, The University of Adelaide

Thursday, 27 August – From Victimhood to Forgiveness

– Dr Gill Hicks MBE
Co-founder of MAD for Peace
– Dr Waleed Alkhazrajy
Consultant for the Islamic Society of South Australia