GENERAL RULES AND CONDITIONS

Please read this information carefully.

Cross-Institutional Students

Students enrolled in a program of study at a higher education institution who want to count courses offered at other universities towards their award at their home institution, may be admitted to such courses as cross-institutional students.

Home Institution

The university at which the award will be conferred is referred to as the home institution. For advice on submitting your application for enrolment as a cross-institutional student, consult your Faculty administrator at your home institution.

Host University

The University of Adelaide is the "host" university at which enrolment in courses is being sought. You will need to obtain permission from your home institution before lodging this form with the University of Adelaide.

Quotas

Quotas that form part of normal selection processes to award programs do not apply. However, the University of Adelaide may not admit cross-institutional students in cases where insufficient places are available for its own students.

Conditions of Admission

Cross-institutional students are subject to the same Statutes, Regulations, Rules and Policies as apply to students enrolled in an award course at the University of Adelaide. These Statutes, Regulations, Rules and Policies relate to attendance at classes, performance or work, discipline, conduct and progress and are to be found in the University's publications.

If a cross-institutional student is subsequently admitted to a program leading to an award at the University of Adelaide, courses passed while enrolled on a cross-institutional basis may only be counted towards an award if specifically approved by the relevant Faculty or School.

Invoices and Commonwealth Assistance Notices

All invoices and Commonwealth Assistance Notices are generated electronically through Access Adelaide. Emails are sent to University of Adelaide student email accounts advising when an invoice/notice is available.

Fee Status

- If you are a Commonwealth Supported student you must complete a Request for Commonwealth Support and HECS-HELP section when you enrol online. This includes students who are New Zealand Citizens and Permanent Residents who are eligible to enrol as Commonwealth Supported students.
- Domestic fee paying students may be eligible to apply for FEE-HELP assistance by completing the Request for FEE-HELP Assistance section when you enrol online.
- If you hold a Commonwealth Supported place at your home institution, please be aware you may still be considered a domestic fee paying student at the University of Adelaide.
- International students will be liable for international tuition fees.

Withdrawal

If you wish to withdraw from your cross-institutional course you must drop the course online at Access Adelaide before the relevant census date. Failure to do so will incur charges and possible system generated result eg Withdraw Fail. Information on census dates for courses in teaching sessions, as well as Withdraw No Fail dates and other critical dates is available at www.adelaide.edu.au/student/dates/

TO LODGE THIS FORM:

1. Choose the course(s) you wish to study at the University of Adelaide and enter the details in Section 2.
2. Obtain authorisation from your home institution by having the form signed by an authorised person from your home institution.
Note: Flinders University students require a Confirmation of Enrolment from Flinders Enrolments Services.
3. Obtain authorisation from the University of Adelaide by having the form signed by the appropriate authorised person from the University.
4. Make sure you complete all sections of the form and retain a copy of the signed form for your personal records.
5. When authority to enrol has been granted and you have received your University ID number and password, logon to UNIFIED at unified.adelaide.edu.au and enrol online at Access Adelaide, complete the relevant sections including HECS or FEE-Help. Consult the relevant Faculty/School Administrator to determine enrolment dates and procedures.
6. It is your responsibility to relay results to your home institution to confirm your credit/status for those course(s). Your home institution, however, has the authority to request these results from the University of Adelaide.
