

MILK QUALITY & PREVENTING MASTITIS

Wash udder with warm water before milking

Dispose of the first milk drop

Milking with full-hand

Clean and dry teat with one microfibre cloth for one cow

Teat dipping with iodine solution after milking to prevent infection

Filter milk

Wash milking equipment and cans with warm water and detergent

Dry milk cans upside down in a clean area

Detect subclinical mastitis with the Surf test

Keep shed and milking area clean

Separate any mastitis cows and milk them last