The tuition fee offset is provided through the support of the Australian Government and is valued at $30,154 per annum (indexed annually). Note that these funds are not paid to you as the student, but are paid to the University by the Australian Government to offset your tuition fees.

2.3 Allowances

(i) Publication Allowance

RTP and University of Adelaide Stipend holders are eligible to receive reimbursement for costs related to the production and submission of the thesis (e.g. editing, printing, binding) and the costs relating to publishing of academic papers or book chapters. The maximum allowance that can be claimed for all of the above mentioned costs is:

Following submission of the thesis or acceptance of an academic paper for publishing, a claim for reimbursement of costs can be made on the prescribed form, supported by original receipts of expenditure.

Claims for costs related to the production and submission of the thesis and/or publication of academic papers or book chapters must be made within 12 months of the date of initial submission of the thesis. The amount paid will not exceed the maximum allowance applicable at the time of submission of the thesis.

In exceptional circumstances, students may apply for a waiver of the relevant time limit on claiming the allowance with any decision remaining at the discretion of the University. Any waiver of the time limit must be approved by the Graduate Scholarships Committee, subject to it being satisfied that the exceptional circumstances were beyond the student's control and warrant an extension of the period in which this allowance may be claimed.

Claim forms can be downloaded from <http://www.adelaide.edu.au/graduatecentre/scholarships/forms/>

(ii) Relocation Allowance

An award holder who relocates to Adelaide to commence their program of study at the University of Adelaide is entitled to receive a relocation allowance to cover travel and removal expenses.
