THE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH & CREATIVE WRITING SEMINAR

Friday, 6 March, 3:00-4:30
Napier Building 618, North Terrace

Sarah Selecky: In Conversation

Acclaimed Canadian author Sarah Selecky reads from her novel, Radiant Shimmering Light, and discusses her own creative process, as well as the creation of the Sarah Selecky Writing School, which has grown into a creative community of thousands of writers around the world. Moderator: Dr Matthew Hooton.

Sarah Selecky is the author of the novel Radiant Shimmering Light and the short story collection This Cake Is for the Party, which was a finalist for the Giller Prize, shortlisted for the Commonwealth Book Prize, and longlisted for the Frank O'Connor International Short Story Award. She earned her MFA from the University of British Columbia. In 2011 she founded the Sarah Selecky Writing School, which has become a creative community for more than 13,000 writers from around the world. She lives in Prince Edward County, Ontario.

Presented with the support of the J.M. Coetzee Centre for Creative Practice.
