

THE UNIVERSITY of ADELAIDE

Recruitment – Casual Employment

Information Sheet for Potential Casual Staff

If I register as a casual with the University will I get work?

The casual register is available to key staff across the University who are involved with recruitment, your details will be visible to them while you remain registered with us. We cannot guarantee that you will be given work as a result of registering on the casual register.

We encourage you to register for job alerts on our jobs website which will send you email notices when roles are posted which meet your search criteria.

I am a University of Adelaide student – can I register as a casual?

Yes, we are happy to consider current University students as part of the casual pool.

I am an international student, can I work while I am studying?

Yes, you can work while you are studying however please ensure that you are aware of any restrictions your student visa has in terms of working hours both in and out of session.

What if I no longer want to be considered as a potential casual?

You can withdraw your casual registration at any time. Please see Quick Reference Guide for information on how to do this.

How long will my registration on the University of Adelaide casual register last?

To ensure that the casual register is as up to date as possible we intend to only hold registrations open for three months. After three months has passed we will send you an email advising that your registration has expired. You will then be able to resubmit if you are still seeking casual opportunities.
